TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Four More Ballots—Horatio Seymour Nominated on the Twenty-second Ballot by Acclamation—Frank P. Blair the Candidate for Vice President—Exciting Proceedings.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 9, 1868.

The delegates assembled about 10 o'clock. Mr. Seymour, permanent President, took the Chair amid applause, and called the Convention to order at 10:20 o'clock, but immediately thereafter retired, when Vice President Price, of New York, took the Chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Plummer.

Mr. Niblack, of Indiana, moved to dispense with the reading of the journal of yesterday. Agreed to.

A delegate rose to a privileged question, and complained that the order of the Convention inviting them to seats on the floor had not been enforced He asked that the Sergeant-at-Arms be instructed to do it. There were great complaints that many were refused admission.

The Secretary stated that tickets had been issued to the soldiers and sailors, who were admitted to the extent of the capacity of the hall.

Mr. Broadhead, of Missouri, rose to nominate Francis P. Blair as a candidate before this Convention for President. He had firmness of purpose, great courage, indomitable will, especially required at this time. He would give a living meaning to the pledge to preserve and defend the Constitution and assert and maintain the independence of the Executive. He knows the duties of the Executive station and will dare maintain them. He nominated Mr. Blair on behalf of the Missouri delegation.

Mr. Miller, of Pennsylvania, rose and complained of the violation by Mr. Tilden, yesterday, of the rules of the Convention, in making remarks on announcing the change of vote of that State. His remarks were excited and in bad temper. Referring incidentally to the name of Chase, the galleries broke out in great cheering.

The Chair announced the business in order was the nineteenth ballot.

A delegate from California, in a few remarks, presented Judge Stephen Field, of that State, as a candidate for the Presidency, whom he eulogised as a guardian of the Constitution of the country against the assaults of Radicals at Washington. [Subdued cheers.]

Mr. Vallandigham said he had a communication in writing which, with leave of the Chair, he would read from the stand. His appearance on the platform was greeted with moderate cheers. He read a letter from Mr. Pendleton, dated at Cincinnati, July 2d, and addressed to Washington McLean, of the Ohio delegation, authorizing the withdrawal of his name whenever it should seem desirable. He deemed the success of the party far more important than the gratification of any personal ambition. If at any time a name could be presented that was likely to more heartily unite the party, then his (Pendleton's) name should be withdrawn.

Mr. Vallandigham said it was Mr. McLean's desire to present this letter early yesterday, but the Ohio delegation thought best to keep his name before the Convention throughout yesterday. He commended the magnanimity and unselfish patriotism of this letter, and finally withdrew Mr. Pendleton's name with thanks to those who had supported him with such fidelity. [Great cheers.]

The following is Mr. Pendleton's letter:

CINCINNATI, July 2d, 1868.

WASHINGTON MCLEAN, Fifth Avenue Hotel—My Dear Sir:—You know, better than any one, the principles and feelings which have guided my conduct since the suggestion of my name for the Presidential nomination. You know that while I receive the good opinion of my countryman, and would feel an honest pride in so distinguished a mark of their confidence, I do not desire it at the expense of one single electoral vote, (great applause,) or or the least disturbance of the harmony of our party. I consider the success of the Democratic party in the next election of far greater importance than the gratification of any personal ambition, however pure and lofty it might be. (Loud cheers.) If, therefore, at any time, a name shall be suggested which, in the opinion of yourself and those friends who have shared our confidence, shall be stronger before the country, or which can more thoroughly unite our own party, I beg that you will instantly withdraw my name and pledge to the Convention my hearty and zealous aid and active support for its nominee.

Very truly yours,

[Signed] GEO. H. PENDLETON.

NINETEENTH BALLOT.

The roll was called for the nineteenth ballot. Alabama and Arkansas led off for Hancock, [Cheers.] Connecticut returned to the support of English. Delaware went to Hancock. [Cheers.] Richardson cast the entire vote of Illinois for Hendricks. A delegate from the Second District rose to object to being counted for Hendricks, but was ruled out of order. Massachusetts voted solidly for Hancock. Nevada for Field. New Jersey voted 7 for Field. New York adhered to Hendricks. Ohio went solid for Packer, of Pennsylvania. Oregon gave Packer 1, and Field 2. Pennsylvania retired for consultation. Tennessee cast 10 for Hancock. [Cheers.] Pennsylvania came in and cast 26 for Hancock. [Great cheers.]

The Chair announced the result:

Hancock	135½	Blair	13½
English	6	Field	15
Packer	22	Chase	½
Doolittle	12	Seymour	4
Hendricks	107½

TWENTIETH BALLOT.

The roll was called on the twentieth ballot. Arkansas broke from Hancock and gave Hendricks four of her five votes. Massachusetts asked time and was passed. [It is rumored she will go for Chase.] New Jersey voted seven for Hendricks. New York adhered to Hendricks. Ohio asked time and was passed. [Excitement and interest intense.] Pennsylvania adhered to Hancock. Kentucky gave Hendricks 5 and Hancock 3¼. Massachusetts asked and obtained leave to retire for fifteen minutes. Ohio gave gave English ten and Hancock eleven, and then obtained leave to retire for consultation.

The Chair announced a general recess for fifteen minutes.

[During recess John Morrissey offered bets that English would be the nominee. The caucussing was active all over the hall, each delegation reviewing the field, discussing the chances of the different candidates and determining how to vote on the next ballot, or how to change their votes if there should be any general change of votes before the twentieth ballot, still pending.]

The Convention was again called to order. The result was announced as follows:

English	16	Hancock	142½
Doolittle	12	Hendricks	121
Blair	13	Field	9
Seymour	2

TWENTY-FIRST BALLOT.

The roll was called on the twenty-first ballot. Kentucky and Massachusetts again asked time and were passed. Missouri abandoned Blair and gave Hancock six and Hendricks four. Tennessee split again, giving Johnson five, Hancock two and one-half, and McClellan one-half. (Cheers in the gallery.)

(Mr. Seymour resumed the Chair.) Massachusetts gave four for Chase. (Great, prolonged and repeated cheering in the galleries, and hisses on the floor.)

The result was announced:

English	19	Hancock	135½
Johnson	5	Doolittle	12
Hendricks	132	Field	8
Chase	4	McClellan	½
Hoffman	½

Chase was again hissed, which was responded to by overwhelming cheers.

TWENTY-SECOND BALLOT.

On the twenty-second ballot California voted solid for Hendricks. Minnesota gave Hendricks her entire four. Missouri gave Hendricks eight. Nevada gave him three. New York adhered to him. North Carolina gave him her nine. (Great cheers.)

When Ohio was called Gen. McCook, by unanimous direction of his delegation, and with the assent and approval of every public man in that State, including Mr. Pendleton, put in nomination, against his inclination, but no longer against his honor, the name of Hon. Horatio Seymour. He said: Let us vote for a man whom the Presidency has sought and who has not sought the Presidency. This he believed would drive from power the Radical cabal at Washington. He believed this nomination would command the unanimous approval of Democrats and Conservative men of all sections. He asked, on behalf of the country, that Mr. Seymour should yield to this wish of the Convention. (Great excitement and applause, delegates rising and cheering.)

Mr. McCook cast twenty-one votes for Horatio Seymour. [Renewed cheering.]

Mr. Seymour rose and said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION:—(Cheers.) The motion just made by the gentleman from Ohio excites in my mind with the most mingled emotions. (Applause.) I have not terms in which to express my gratitude for the generosity of this Convention. (Cheers.) I have no terms in which to tell of my regret that my name has been brought before this Convention. God knows, my life, and all I value most in life, I would give for the good of my country, which I believe to be identical with my own. (Applause and cries of "take the nomination, then.") I do not stand here as a man proud of his opinions, or obstinate in his purpose; but upon a question of honor, I must stand upon my own convictions against the world. (Applause, and a voice, 'God bless you, Horatio Seymour.") Gentlemen, when I said here at an early day that honor forbade my accepting a nomination by this Convention, I meant it. When, in the course of my intercourse with those of my own delegation and my friends, I said that I could not be a candidate, I meant it. And now, permit me to say, I know, after all that has taken place, I could not receive the nomination without placing not only myself, but the Democratic party, in a false position. (Applause.) But, gentlemen of the Convention, more than that. We have had to-day an exhibition from the distinguished citizen of Ohio that has touched my heart as it has touched yours. (Cheers.) I thank God, and I congratulate this country, that there is in the great State of Ohio one whose magnificent position gives it so great a control over the action of our country. A young man, rising in the estimation of his countrymen, and whose future is all glorious, who has said that he could tread beneath his feet every other consideration but that of duty. And when he expressed to his delegation, and expressed in more than direct terms, that he was willing that I should be nominated, who stood in such opposition to his own nomination, I should feel a dishonored man if I could not tread the same honorable path which he has marked out. (Great applause.) Gentlemen, I thank you, and may God bless you for your kindness to me; but your candidate I cannot be. (Three cheers for Seymour.)

Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio—Mr. President; in times of great public exigency, in times of great public calamity, every personal consideration must be yielded to the public good. (Applause.) The safety of the people is the supreme law, and the safety of the American republic demands the nomination of Horatio Seymour, of New York. (Cheers.) Ohio cannot, Ohio will not, accept his declaration, and her twenty-one votes shall stand recorded in his name. (Cries of "good," "good," and cheers.) And now I call upon the delegations from all the States represented on this floor, upon the delegations from all the States of this Union, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the great lakes to the gulf, disregarding all minor considerations, to make this nomination unanimous. And before God I believe in November the judgment of this Convention will be confirmed and ratified by the people of all the United States. (Applause.) Let the vote of Ohio stand recorded, then, twenty-one votes for Horatio Seymour. (Applause.)

Mr. Kiernan, of New York, to relieve everybody in the New York delegation, said they had no lot nor part in this movement of Ohio. They had heard something of it, but declined to take any part in it, out of regard for the proper sensitiveness of the President of the Convention, until other States should show by their action that Mr. Seymour was demanded by the party in Convention. He urged the necessity of success in the campaign and expressed his opinion that Mr. Seymour could now accept the judgment of the Convention with honor, and that he should yield, as a matter of duty, to its wish, and with him as a candidete New York was good for one hundred thousand majority.

The call of the roll was then proceeded with. Tennessee gave Horatio Seymour ten votes. When Wisconsin was called Mr. Palmer seconded the State of Ohio and cast eight votes for Horatio Seymour. [Great cheering.] Massachusetts gave twelve for Horatio Seymour. North Carolina changed her nine votes from Hendricks to Seymour. [Cheers.] Pennsylvania asked not to be recorded for the present. Mississippi changed from Hancock to Horatio Seymour. [Great cheering and confusion ensued, delegations standing upon their seats. Cries of "sit down," "sit down," "order."]

Mr. Price took the Chair and insisted that gentlemen must take seats, and would recognize no one until order was restored.

Mr. Woodward, of Pa., now rose and transferred her twenty-six votes to Horatio Seymour. (Great cheering and disorder.)

Cries of delegates all over the house to their respective chairmen, "change our vote," "change our vote." Half a dozen States at once wanted to change their vote.

Missouri changed to Seymour eleven. Illinois followed en masse for Seymour. (Tremendous cheering and indescribable confusion.) Indiana changed solid thirteen to Seymour. Iowa came next eight for Seymour. Texas cast her six.

Here the cannon in the street began to fire a salute for the nominee, as State after State came in, but the confusion and noise was so great that not a word could be distinguished of what anybody said. Mr. Seymour was clearly nominated.

The confusion subsiding, Alabama, Maine, Kansas, and Arkansas followed successively with a unanimous vote for Seymour?

Mr. Dawson, of Pa., moved his nomination, but there was so much confusion that nothing was done with it.

A delegate from Minnesota, frantically waving one of the State standards, attracted the attention of the Chairman, and cast the vote of Minnesota for Seymour. Georgia paid the last tribute to Hancock, the most knightly soldier of the war, who she had supported earnestly, but she now united in voting unanimously for Seymour. Louisiana gave her seven to Seymour.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, said that State came to the Convention with the single purpose to nominate a candidate who could certainly be elected. That position she occupied to-day. He proceeded to eulogize Seymour as the greatest statesman now living and cast Michigan's vote for him.

The band on 14th street struck up "The Battle Cry of Freedom," the cannon still saluting.

A delegate from South Carolina said he was from a State which felt most heavily the chains of oppression of Radical rule. He said South Carolina came here caring more for men than measures. They were satisfied with the platform adopted so unanimously, and South Carolina, with the invocation of God's blessing on the party on which rests the last hope of the country, casts her vote for Seymour.

Maryland changed to Seymour.

Mr. Tilden, of New York, rose. Great interest to hear him was manifested and cries were uttered of "take the platform." He spoke from his place, and said he did not, last evening, believe that the event which has now occurred could have happened. [His remarks here were not distinctly audible to the reporter because of the conversation in his vicinity.] He was understood to say he had no expectation that Ohio would have come to the support of the State of New York. He had opposed Ohio's earnest wishes. In conclusion he announced the unanimous vote of New York for Horatio Seymour.

Mr. Clark, of Wisconsin, called for the ratification of the nomination by three cheers for Horatio Seymour, which were given with a will. The Chair announced the result, all the States having voted. The result was: For Seymour, 317 votes. (Enthusiasm and cheering, the whole Convention and audience rising, waving hats, handkerchiefs, fans, etc., for several minutes. Loud calls for Seymour, and cries of "Sit down in front.")

The Chair rapped with his gavel and called order in vain for several minutes.

The Chair (Mr. Price) announced that Mr. Seymour having received the unanimous vote of the Convention, was the standard bearer for the coming campaign.

Mr. Preston, Ky., offered a resolution to proceed to nominate a candidate for Vice President.

Mr. Woodward seconded the motion.

[A new scene of confusion ensued.]

On the call of the States for the nomination of candidates for the Vice Presidency, one of the delegates from California eulogized H. H. Haight of that State, but was understood to say that the State presented no candidate. Mr. Steele, of California, said that this was a mistake, and that a majority of the delegation nominated Frank P. Blair.

Mr. Bigler, of Pennsylvania, urged the nomination for Vice Presidency as a matter of great importance, and moved a recess for consultation.

Mr. Preston made the point of order that no motion to adjourn or take a recess was in order while the roll of the States was being called.

Mr. Woodward moved to suspend the rules in order to enable Pennsylvania to make a nomination. Lost.

The Chair put the question on the motion by Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, for a recess of one hour.

The motion seemed clearly lost, but the Chair announced it had been carried, so a recess for one hour was taken.

When the roll of the States had been called through and before the general changing began, the twenty-second ballot stood as follows: Alabama, Hancock, 8; Arkansas, Hendricks, 5; California, Hendricks, 5; Connecticut, English, 6; Delaware, Hancock, 3; Florida, Hendricks, 3; Georgia, Hancock, 9; Illinois, Hendricks, 16; Indiana, Hendricks, 13; Iowa, Hendricks, 8; Kansas, Hancock, 3, Hendricks, 2; Kentucky, Seymour, 11; (cheers,) Louisiana, Hancock, 7; Maine, Hancock, 4½, Hendricks, 2½; Maryland, Hancock, 6, Hendricks, 1; Massachusetts, Seymour, 12; Michigan, Hendricks, 8; Minnesota, Hendricks, 4; Mississippi, Hancock, 7; Missouri, English, 1, Hancock, 2, Hendricks, 8; Nebraska, Hendricks, 3; Nevada, Hendricks, 3; New Hampshire, Hancock, 4½, Hendricks, ½; New York, Hendricks, 33; North Carolina, Hendricks, 9; Ohio, Seymour, 21; Oregon, Hendricks, 3; Pennsylvania, Hancock, 26; Rhode Island, Doolittle, 4; South Carolina, Hancock, 6; Tennessee, Hancock, 3½, A. Johnson, 4, Hendricks, 1½, Seymour, 1; (cheers,) Texas, Hancock, 6, Hendricks, 5; Virginia, Hancock, 10; West Virginia, Hendricks, 5, Doolittle, 8.

2 P. M.—The delegates are reassembling. The various State delegations are caucussing informally in the Hall. There seems a general conviction that the second place on the ticket must be assigned to a soldier. The names of Gen. F. P. Blair, Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., Gen. Hancock and Gen. Morgan, of Ohio, are freely canvassed. In this connection Hancock's locality as a Pennsylvanian is urg d as a fatal objection to him, since New York has the Presidential nomination. Ewing appears popular. The friends of Blair urge that the latter will excite more enthusiasm among the soldiers. It is said New York will probably give him her vote.

It is now understood that before the recess Judge Woodward, on behalf of Pennsylvania, was to nominate Blair. Since then the delegation is much divided between Blair, Morgan and Ewing. General McClernand, of Illinois, is also talked of for Vice President.

Mr. Price called the Convention to order at 2:30, Gov. Seymour having retired to his quarters at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Illinois presented the name of John A. McClernand, a compeer of Clay and Webster, a distinguished General of the late war, whose brain conceived the capture of Vicksburg, though the credit of that achievement was given to a much inferior man. (Cheers.)

Gen. McClernand rose to thank the Convention, but asked the delegates to withdraw his name. (Cries of "no, no.") He had no ambition except to assist in relieving the country from the thraldom which now binds her. He said the soldiers would heartily accept the nomination of Seymour. The Union soldiers and sailors were not all for a sham hero, a creature of fortuitous circumstances. More than one-half of them would vote for the patriot orator and Statesman, Horatio Seymour. He said he was in earnest in asking the withdrawal of his name.

The Illinois delegate who nominated him withdrew his name at his request.

Mr. O'Neill, of Iowa, presented Augustus C. Dodge, of that State, whom he eulogized as a man of integrity, of unswerving fidelity to his party, a man with a national reputation, who served his State in four Congresses and for two terms in the United States Senate, and had been Minister to Spain. [Coldly received.]

A Kansas delegate presented a letter from the Soldiers and Sailors Convention, which he said expressed the views and wishes of that Convention under certain circumstances. After a brief and eloquent tribute to his character and qualifications, he nominated Gen. Thos. Ewing, Jr., of Kansas.

The letter from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention was read by the Secretary. It was dated on the 8th inst. and names Gen. Ewing as the choice of the Convention for the second place on the ticket should the first be taken from the East. Ordered to be spread on the minutes.

Mr. Preston, of Kentucky, make a few remarks, in which he said this nomination was due to the West and presented Gen. F. B. Blair, of Missouri, as a Southern soldier. He had differed from Gen. Blair in the war. He desired to say that the soldiers of the South extended their hands to the soldiers of the North in tone of amity and good will.

Gen. Steadman, of Louisiana, seconded the nomination of his companion in arms, General F. P. Blair. He claimed the support given by the South to General Hancock and the nomination of Blair by Preston, was an evidence that the soldiers of the South accepted the situation and the issue of the war in good faith.

Mr. Anderson, of Maine, seconded the nomination of Mr. Ewing, and presented a letter from the Soldiers and Sailors' Convention of that State in his favor, under certain circumstances.

Maryland said she would sustain Blair. Mississippi and Maine, Nebraska and Nevada also seconded Blair. North Carolina, in order to show that she had no prejudice against a soldier who fought gallantly for his own side during the war, seconded the nomination of Blair. Oregon also seconded Blair. Pennsylvania seconded the nomination of that great soldier and sound statesman, Blair. [Cheers].

When South Carolina was called, her chairman rose and introduced Wade Hampton to announce her response. He was received with uproarious applause. Mr. Hampton said: The soldiers of the South, frankly, cheerfully and cordially accept the hand of amity extended to them here. He thought it due to the soldiers of the North they should have a second place on the ticket, and he seconded, therefore, the nomination of General Blair. [Cheers.]

As he took his seat General McClernand crossed the hall and took Hampton by the hand amid vociferous applause.

Virginia seconded Mr. Blair in token of acceptance of the proffer by the Northern soldiers of amnesty and good will.

At the close, Mr. Tilden, of New York, concurred in the nomination of Mr. Blair.

The delegate from Kansas who nominated Mr. Ewing, now arose and said by request of that gentleman, and by instruction of his delegation, he withdrew the nomination of Mr. Ewing and moved that Gen. Blair be nominated by acclamation.

Maine seconded the motion.

Iowa then withdrew the nomination of General Dodge, which left Blair the only nomination before the Convention.

(Great cries of "No," "No." "Call the roll," "Call the roll,") which was ordered. Each State in its order voted unanimously for Gen. Blair. A delegate of Alabama led off, saying: "As a rebel soldier of Alabama, I take pleasure in casting her vote for the gallant Union soldier, F. P. Blair."

Mr. Woodward, in casting the vote of Pennsylvania for Blair, pledged twenty thousand majority for the ticket in that State in November next.

When Tennessee was called, Mr. Nelson introduced Gen. N. B. Forrest to cast the vote. (Great cheers.) Gen. Forrest rose, cast the vote for Blair, and thanked the Convention for the courtesy and kindness extended by its members to the soldiers of the South.

Col. Ashbel Smith, with a few remarks, cast the vote of Texas for Blair.

The Chair announced that a unanimous vote having been cast for F. P. Blair, he was the nominee of the Convention for Vice President.

S. S. Cox, of New York, rose to move the nomination be ratified by the unanimous voice of both the delegates and audience. The entire assemblage united in three cheers

Mr. McDonald, of Indiana, moved the Chair appoint a committee of one member from each State to inform the nominees of their election.

The Secretary read a call of the National Democratic Committee at eight o'clock to-night for organization.

The Secretary read a telegram from Lancaster, Pa., announcing that the Democracy there were firing a salute for the nomination of Horatio Seymour, which nomination was received with great enthusiasm.

Mr. Keenan, of Pa., offered, and the Convention adopted, a resolution of thanks to the citizens of New York for their hospitality, &c.

Mr. White, of Indiana, offered a resolution of thanks to the President and other officers of the Convention. Adopted.

Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio, offered a resolution sympathizing cordially with the workingmen of the United States, etc. Adopted.

Mr. Cavanagh, of Montana, moved that a delegation from each territory be added to the Committee to inform the nominees of their selection.

A resolution of thanks was adopted to the Tammany Society for the use of their magnificent hall, and the Manhattan Club for their liberal hospitality.

A resolution was adopted, on motion of Mr. Kerr, of Pa., thanking the press of New York for their impartial and faithful reports of the proceedings of this Convention.

Mr. Cox, of New York, requested the Secretary, the distinguished Chief Justice of Utah, to announce that a grand ratification meeting would be held to-night in Union Square, under the auspices of the Tammany Society.

The Chair announced the Committee to inform the nominees of this Convention of their selection.

Mr. Kiernan, of New York, at the suggestion of many members of the various delegations, moved the thanks of this Convention be tendered to Chief Justice Chase for the able and impartial manner in which he presided over the impeachment trial of President Johnson.

Then, on motion of Gen. McCook, of Ohio, the Convention adjourned with repeated cheers.

—Democratic jubilees over the nomination of Seymour and Blair were held last evening in St. Louis, Louisville, Memphis and Nashville. In Chicago a salute of one hundred guns was fired, but the nominations did not appear to create great enthusiasm. Mr. Pendleton telegraphed to Mr. Seymour from Cincinnati his congratulations, and proffered him his earnest and active support.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK A. M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

The Tax Bill Passed the Senate—Farewell of Senator Reverdy Johnson—Attempts to Take Up the Tariff Bill in the House—Reduction of the Army to the Peace Establishment.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 9, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. HARLAN introduced resolutions of the Iowa Legislature, with an accompanying bill, declaring certain portions of the Iowa River not a navigable stream. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Mr. HARLAN reported from the Committee on Postoffices a bill relative to the construction of bridges, and declaring them post roads.

On motion of Mr. EDMUNDS, the Secretary of State was requested to notify the Senate what States have ratified the fourteenth amendment, with all information on the subject.

Mr. CATTELL called up the bill to provide for the further issue of temporary loan certificates, for the purpose of redeeming and retiring the remainder of the outstanding compound interest notes.

After some discussion, it was postponed.

The joint resolution to drop from the rolls of the army certain officers for absenting themselves from their commands without leave was passed.

The tax bill was considered.

Mr. POMEROY'S amendment to restore the two dollar tax was rejected—fourteen to twenty-seven.

Mr. NORTON moved to make the amount ninety cents.

After debate the amendment was lost—fourteen against twenty-three.

Yeas—Messrs. Cole, Edmunds, Howe, Harlan, Norton, Nye, Osborne, M'Donald, Pomeroy, Ross, Tipton, Wade, Wilson, Yates.

Mr. VANWINKLE moved to relieve petroleum and kindred substances from internal taxation. Adopted—18 to 16.

Mr. HARLAN offered an amendment increasing the tax on whisky in bond from four to six. Rejected.

The bill then passed.

Mr. JOHNSON asked permission of the Senate to trouble them with a few words. He had committed to writing what he desired, and would ask his colleague to read them.

Mr. VICKERS then read the MSS. of Mr. Johnson, as follows: Mr. President—May I be excused for arresting, for a moment or two, the ordinary business of the Senate by a few words personal to myself. Having agreed to accept a public trust abroad, committed to me by the President, with the approval of the Senate, I am about to resign my seat in this body. Having been a member for nearly six years, and contracted friendships which have been a constant source of pleasure, and which I shall ever value, I cannot retire but with the deepest regret. During the period of my service a civil war of unexampled magnitude was waged, threatening our national life and its successful termination by arms. The consequences of the conflict have not wholly disappeared. In this period questions of the greatest importance, involving the powers of the Government and the reserved rights of the States, have been discussed in this chamber with a solicitude to uphold the Government in its rightful authority and to restore the entire country to its wonted prosperity. In these discussions I have more or less participated, and although widely differing with a majority of the Senate, and supporting my opinions with earnestness, it will always be a great gratification to me to remember that at all times by every member I was treated with uniform courtesy, and I need hardly say, Mr. President, that such courtesy I never failed gladly to reciprocate. In the new office of public duty in which I am about to enter, I may find subjects of controversy that for a time, as they have already done, may more or less distract the friendly relations between the Government of Great Britain and our own, but that this disturbance will be temporarary, I do not doubt. The interests of both nations are so firmly dependant upon a mutual and friendly understanding, that the people of each cannot fail to see the duty of having it observed, and I believe this can be accomplished by the manifestations of reciprocal good will. As our government is actuated by such a feeling, the complications of the present time, I am satisfied, will soon be removed. In whatever part, under the instructions of the President, I may take in the regulations preliminary to such a result, I shall be influenced by a sincere wish to secure for both Governments an adjustment honorable to both, and I have every reason to think I shall be met in the same spirit by the government. In all I may do I shall look with hope to the approval of my associates in this body, and although I may fail in all respects to meet with it, I cannot be mistaken in thinking they will do me the justice to believe that I have been governed throughout by an earnest desire to maintain all the rights and protect the interests of our beloved country. It is not ae all probable that I shall again be a member of the Senate, and it oppresses me to think I may never, after I leave the country, have the pleasure of seeing again all its members. But I beg you, Mr. President, and them, to be assured that whatever distance may separate us, I shall never cease gratefully to remember the kindness evinced for me in this Chamber, or to hope for the happiness and prosperity of its members. When I return from my embassy, I trust and believe there will be an enduring peace between ourselves and the other nations of the world, and this, I am sure, can be secured by a firm and courteous maintenance of our own rights and a scrupulous regard for the rights of others. And above all, I trust that all the troubles incident to our recent domestic conflict will then have totally disappeared and we shall be in the uninterrupted enjoyment of that unity of government which, in the parting words of Washington, is the main pillar in the edifice of our real independence the support of our tranquility at home, of our peace abroad, of our safety, of our prosperity, of that very liberty which we so highly prize. These ends being accomplished, imagination itself will be at a loss to picture adequately the future greatness of our land. And now, Mr. President, I leave the body with one more word, but a word which to friends it is ever most painful to utter, "farewell."

The Senators generally flocked around Mr. Johnson to bid him farewell. He was visibly affected.

The funding bill was postponed until one o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. EDMUNDS called up his bill to regulate the representation of certain States in the Electoral College.

Mr. DRAKE moved a substitute as an amendment, providing that no electoral vote shall be given or counted from any State heretofore in insurrection, unless previous to the legal time for election the State shall have been re-admitted to representation in Congress, nor unless an election has been held under the permanent, not the provisional State government authorized by Congress.

Messrs. Edmunds, Howard and Morton opposed the amendment.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Senate joint resolution giving the assent of Congress to the construction of a bridge across Marquetta River, in Iowa, was amended by adding a new section authorizing the construction of draws and a bridge across Iowa River, in Iowa, above the town of Wapela, and passed.

The bill for the relief of the loyal Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians was passed, with a provision that no money be paid or bonds delivered under the bill, except actually entitled in his own right to receive the same, and no contract or power of attorney relating to the same shall be regarded or held of any validity, unless assigned and executed after the passage of the act.

Mr. GARFIELD, from Military Committee, reported a bill to reduce the army to a peace establishment, and to declare the meaning of the several acts relative to retired officers of the army. Ordered to be printed, and recommitted.

Mr. SHANKS, from Committee on Ways and Means, reported back the petition of New York merchants relative to the reappraisement of foreign merchandise imported, and recommended no bill for any such purpose be passed, which was tabled.

Mr. BUTLER introduced a bill to equalize taxation and reduce the interest of the public debt, which was referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

The Senate bill legalizing the acts of the two tax Commissioners in Arkassas was referred to Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. BANKS moved to postpone till Tuesday next the vote on the passage of the Alaska bill. Adopted—98 against 35.

The Missouri contested election case was posponed until Tuesday.

The SPEAKER presented a communication from the Secretary of War, with a letter from the Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist Home Mission Society, respecting a mission building at Sault St. Marie. Referred to the Military Committee by a vote of 62 to 58.

The House went into a Committee of the Whole and laid aside a large number of bills on the calendar in an effort to reach the tariff bill.

During the proceedings a dispatch was circulated through the hall to the effect that Mr. Eldridge was killed in New York by the premature discharge of a cannon, but the feeling of sadness soon disappeared by the appearance of Mr. Eldridge in his seat, having returned from New York.

The Committee finding itself without a quorum, finally Mr. FARNSWORTH asked leave to report and put upon its passage a bill from the Committee on Reconstruction providing for an election in the State of Virginia. He said it was important it should pass at this session.

Objection was made.

The bill provides that the Constitution formed by the Convention which met in Richmond on the 3d of December, 1867, shall be submitted for ratification on the 13th, 14th and 15th of August to voters whose names shall be registered and qualified under the reconstruction acts, an election to be held at the same time for members of Congress and members of the General Assembly and State officers, the members of the General Assembly to meet in Richmond on the 1st of September.

Mr. CHANLER, from the Committee on Elections, made a report on the Utah contested case, that Mr. M. C. Grouty, the contestant, is not entitled to the seat, and that Mr. Hooper, the sitting delegate, is. Ordered to be printed and laid aside for future action.

The House again went into Committee of the Whole. All bills preceding the tariff bill on the Calendar were laid aside. The first reading of the tariff having been completed, the Committee rose.

Mr. FARNSWORTH, from the Committee on Elections, reported a bill providing for an election in Virginia. He explained the necessity for it as arising from the fact that the time had passed within which the Commanding General could order the election to take place, and there was now no authority anywhere for that purpose. The bill passed without a division.

On motion of Mr. PRICE, the Secretary of the Interior was directed to furnish a copy of the report of General Dodge, Chief Engineer of the Union Pacific Railroad, concerning the operations of the Company for the year 1867.

The House proceeded to the business on the Speaker's table, and disposed thereof as follows:

The Senate amendments to the House bill to amend the act of March 3d, 1865, providing for the construction of wagon roads in Dakotah Territory, were concurred in.

The Senate amendments to the House bill making a grant of land to Minnesota to aid in the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi river, after considerable debate, was non-concurred in—yeas 54, naye 58.

Recess till 7:30.

Another Letter from Pendleton.

NEW YORK, July 9, 1868.

The following private letter from Mr. Pendleton was addressed to Washington McLean, of the Ohio delegation, before that delegation left Ohio, and was handed to John A. Green, Jr., on their arrival in New York:

Cincinnati, Thursday, June 25th, 1868.

My Dear Sir: You left my office this morning before I was aware of it. I seek you at home, but you are not here. I must say what I want to say by note. As soon as you get to New York, see Governor Seymour. You know well what were my feelings before and after I heard from him last fall. He is to-day the foremost man in our party in the United States. His ability, cultivation and experience put him at the head of our statesmen. He commands my entire confidence. I would rather trust him than myself with the delicate duties of the next four years. You know I am sincere. Make him feel this, and that he can rely on me and my friends. I have a national pride, an honest pride, in the good will of my countrymen; but you know, better than any one else, it is neither egotistical nor overruling, and that I am ready and anxious to give up the nomination to anybody who can get one single vote more than myself. Express all this frankly to the Governor, but delicately, and let him understand my views of men and measures as I have frequently given them to you. Good bye. God bless you.

Yours, truly,

GEO. H. PENDLETON.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

BY WM. OLAND BOURNE.

"LET US HAVE PEACE!" is the cry of the millions
Who fought for the starry-gemmed flag of the free;
'Tis the prayer of the Hero, the song of civilians,
That rolls from the mountains far down to the sea.
The nation that rocked in the tempest and gloom,
And drifted in doubt to be wrecked on the shore,
The storm has outlived and the thunders that boom
Are voices that prophesy tempest no more.

"Let us have Peace!" is the sigh of the lowly,
That walk in the vale where the cypress is seen,
Who mourn their departed with tenderness holy,
And kneel where the graves are perennially green;
And where the "Unknown," in their silence, are sleeping,
The feet of the angels are pressing the sod,
And vespers of harmony round them are keeping,
While Martyrs of Freedom have gone to their God.

"Let us have Peace!" the evangel of LABOR,
Where toilers imploringly lift up their hands;
Go! wipe off the stains from the death-dealing sabre,
And build the bright altar of hope for all lands;
Lo! radiant from darkness the temple in glory
Throws wide to the world the broad aisles of the fane;
And freemen shall toil, as they utter the story,
And children repeat to the ages again.

"Let us have Peace!" is the chorus assembling
From hamlets that lie 'mid the pine-covered hills,
And like a glad anthem in unison blending,
Floats on till the plain with its melody thrills;
And rivers that roll to the land of the West,
And prairies that wake to the hymn of the free;
With millions of freemen imploring for rest,
Swell psalms of rejoicing while bending the knee.

"Let us have Peace!" from the war's wild commotion,
The trumpet's alarms, and the crash of the field,
And let the new bliss, like the billows of ocean,
Roll over the land where the hero has kneeled;
The smoke of the battle has swept from the sky,
The thunders have ceased, and the bugle's wild blast;
The chains have been riven! and loud from on high
The reveille calls to the love of the Past!

"LET US HAVE PEACE!" in a holy thanksgiving,
The Hero voice, cries in the name of the LORD!
For the sake of the dead! for the sake of the living!
Turn spears into pruning-hooks—to plowshares the sword!
And out of the darkness shall come forth the beaming
Of Glory's bright sun where the foemen have trod,
And Freedom shall teach, with a truth all-redeeming,
That PEACE WITH OUR BROTHER IS PEACE WITH OUR GOD!

—England extended a generous welcome to Bierstadt, the American artist.

—Guillout, the maccaroni-baker of Paris, uses twelve thousand eggs every day.

—The Royal troops in Italy have their hands full in keeping down brigands and free-booters.

—The Prince of Wales has just added to his other dignities that of President of the Royal Agricultural Saciety.

—Cæsar Cane has just written a new book, which is a parallel between the lives of Washington and Mirabeau.

—A new opera by Wagner, entitled "The Singer of Nuremberg," was to have been produced at Munich on the 21st ult.

—The Royal Globe theatre will be the name of the theatre about to be built by Mr. Sefton Parry on the site of Lyons Inn, London.

—A company of astronomers have been sent by the French Government to Cochin China, to take observations on the eclipse of the sun on the 18th proximo.

—Cardinal Antonelli is said to have been buying in the ecclesiastical property offered for sale by the Italian government. This has given much displeasure to the Pope.

—The favorite target for shooting matches in France is an egg shell placed on a water jet of a fountain where it dances fantastically, challenging the utmost skill to hit it.

—Owing to a great hail storm which recently swept over Italy, seriously impairing the prospects for full crops of grapes and olives, wines and oils have greatly advanced in that country.

—English journals announce, after the fashion of fashionable marriages, one between James Grimshaw, the famous jockey, and the daughter of the trainer employed by Baron Rothschild.

—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal has addressed a pastoral to his diocese, remonstrating against the "prevailing extravagance of dress, which threatens the ruin of many families."

—Mons. Gauldree Boileau, recent Consul General at New York, has retired from public service, and is living at Versailles. It may be remembered he married a daughter of the late Colonel H. Benton.

—Near Munich, Bavaria, there lives an eccentric old American, from Mississippi, who for twenty-five years has never left his house. The only person who visits him is an old washerwoman, who waits upon him and brings him his meals.

—An Italian rabbi—Rabbi Jona, of Jurea—has published a drama, the object of which is to expose the absurdity of the blood accusations against the Jews, and to show on the stage the misery which they have brought on this people.

—Miss Mary Carpenter will be accompanied to India next September by a few noble spirited ladies, who (says the London correspondent of the Boston Advertiser,) will help her in founding a training establishment for female teachers in that country.

—A young Cretan "Joan of Arc" arrived lately at Athens, dressed in masculine attire, which she assumed for the purpose of preserving her incognito while heroically fighting against the Turks in Crete. She has been photographed in her military costume and equipments.

—An interesting composition, by the veteran Moscheles, in the shape of a symphonic sonata for two pianos (eight hands), was brought forward at the last and twenty-fifth anniversary of the Leipsic Conservatorio. Herr Moscheles has attained, we believe, his seventy-fifth year.

—There is scarcely a parish in rural France in which the peasants would not kill the priest if he failed to have the church bells rung during a thunder or hail storm. The Academy of Sciences has repeatedly attempted to remove this prejudice which every year costs the lives of four or five bell-ringers.

—An automaton chess player is making Paris crazy. There is a man in the machine, but where or how he is placed in it is a mystery which baffles the shrewdest. It is the original Maelzael apparatus which created such intense excitement some twenty-five years ago. Robert Houdin is running the exhibition.

—In France the greatest distance over which a telegraphic message can be transmitted is about six hundred miles; in Prussia about five hundred; in Belgium about one hundred and sixty, and in Switzerland about two hundred miles. The charge for a message of twenty words over the greatest distance in France is 1s. 8d.; in Prussia, 1s. 6d.; in Belgium, 5d., and in Switzerland, 5d. In Great Britain 2s. is charged for the transmission of a message over five hundred or six hundred miles, and 1s. 6d. for any message sent one hundred and sixty or two hundred miles.

—A curious accident happened at a baker's shop in Newton, England, the other day. A flock of sheep was going through the street, when one of them ran into the shop. The door of the oven, which was heated at the time, was open, the poor frightened creature ran into it, and before it could be got out was so much burnt that it had to be immediately slaughtered.

—Here is a plan for earning an honest livelihood recently adopted in London, which might well be followed here by those handy enough to perform the work. A London paper says that a class of individuals have sprung up, as if by magic; these take their stand opposite the shops of drapers in common neighborhoods, and offer for sale the patterns of various descriptions of ladies' and children's clothing cut out in tissue paper.

—The rebels in Northern China are again reported to have obtained of late several successes and to menace once more the capital, Pekin. While there can be no doubt that the rebellion in Northern China is still unsubdued, the reports which have been received during the past two years, about the appearance of rebel armies in the neighborhood of Pekin, have always been exaggerations, and are likely to prove so again.

—A Paris letter tells this story: "On the occasion of a visit paid by Alexandre Dumas to the office of the Figaro last week, that illustrious writer was seized by the staff of the paper, and locked up, with pens, ink and paper, and in order that an article might be extracted from him, as the condition of his release. At the expiration of an hour Dumas handed to the editor five articles, and was immediately set at liberty."

—On the Pacific coast of Mexico, serious difficulties have occurred between the Mexican authorities and the captain of an English vessel. The captain threatened to bombard the City of Mazatlan, but owing to the representations of the diplomatic agents of some other countries, fortunately did not carry out his threat. If the report as published is substantially correct, the English captain was guilty of most overbearing conduct.

—It is positively asserted Le Moniteur will, after New Year's Day, next, cease to be printed and published by the Pankoucke family, who have printed and published it since the first number. Mons. Flor, the Emperor's special printer, will get the lucrative place. If the French government and the Pankoucke family fail to come to terms, (the latter are said to ask $400,000 in gold for their property), the official paper will drop Le Moniteur, and be styled Le Journal Official du Government Francais.

—Recently an old gentleman of eccentric habits, Mr. John Younghusband, died at Abbey Home Cumberland, England. The Silloth Railway runs through part of his property, an arrangement to which he was passionately averse; and though years have elapsed, his bitterness was in no way assuaged. In his will he leaves £1,000 to a solicitor who opposed the making of the railway; the rest of his money he bequeaths to a comparative stranger upon the following condition: That the legatee never speaks to one of the directors of the railway; that he never travels upon it; that he never sends cattle or other freight by it; and should he violate any of these conditions, the estate reverts to the ordinary succession. To Mr. John Irving and the other directors of the Silloth Line, Mr. Younghusband sarcastically bequeathed a farthing.

—French notions upon the subject of dueling are evidently undergoing a change for the better. Mr. Henry Rochefort declines to fight the Prince de la Moskowa, and in assigning his reasons in a letter for the decision states that as a writer he has a perfect right to criticise the acts of eminent men; that supposing he expressed his opinion of the conduct pursued in 1815 by Davoust, Augereau, Talleyrand, Marmont, and a hundred others, he might have to fight duels with the decendants of all those personages. The letter concludes in these words: "There is a question of principle involved, which I am unwilling to compromise. To comply with the request of the Prince de la Moskowa would be to accept the role of insulter, which I reject with all my force. I have fought, as perhaps you are aware, several duels, often for trifling causes; but at least they did not affect the right of judgment. I consequently refuse to set a bad example to my colleagues—that is to say, I decline to give the Prince satisfaction by arms."

Salaries of Clergy in New York.

"Those who serve at the altar shall live by the altar," says St. Paul. But the good saint had probably not the faintest idea how well some of his successors would manage to live in this way. It stated that the Rev. J. A. D. Wingfield, of Petersburg, Va., has been called to the Church of the Holy Saviour, on Twenty-fifth street, at a salary of $15,000. The call is loud enough, and the reverend gentleman must be unusually deaf if he does not hear it at that figure. Dr. Potter, a nephew of the Bishop of New York, lately accepted the care of the souls of those who attend Grace Church, for the consideration of $8,000 a year and a small white marble palace on Broadway. Dr. Hill, of the Presbyterian Church, corner of Nineteenth street and Fifth avenue, has come all the way from Dublin to feed the flock that worships there, which he consents to do for the modest pittance of $10,000 a year in gold and a handsome parsonage. The Doctor has the old country notions about currency; he doesn't understand greenbacks, but prefers his pay in solid metal. Dr. Morgan Dix, of Trinity, receives $12,000 and a house; while the more popular preachers go up to a much higher figure. Dr. Chapin receives not less than from fifteen to twenty thousand in salary, and the results of outside literary work; while Henry Ward Beecher's income reaches from twenty to thirty thousand from like sources. On the other hand, our Catholic clergy are underpaid, and have to distribute a good part of what they receive among the poor of their parishes; while the very worst paid preachers of all are poor Judge Edmunds and Robert Dale Owen, who not only have to minister to the Spiritualists for nothing, but get abused for it by the rest of the world.—*N. 500 ACRES OF WHITE PINE AND HEMLOCK TIMBER LAND, situated on Black Lick Creek, Buffington township, Indiana county, Pa., 9 miles from Ninevah Station, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and about 60 acres of cleared land, under good fencing. On the premises are erected one Grist Mill, with 2 run of burrs and 2 run of stones, all complete and in good running order. One Saw Mill, in complete order, cutting 3,000 feet per day.

One dwelling house, two stories high, with 12 rooms, 40x42 feet.
One dwelling, 28x40 feet, 8 rooms.
One " 18x26 " 2 "
One " 18x26 " 4 "
One " 18x26 " 2 "
One " 24x26 " 5 "

One Stable, 20x24 feet, 16 feet high; Blacksmith Shop and other outbuildings. This land is underlaid with stone coal and iron ore, and it has plenty of never-failing springs of water, besides the creek running through the entire premises, and will be sold cheap and on easy terms, to a good man with a little money.

10 LOTS ON BEDFORD AVENUE, each lot 20 by 100 feet, on which is erected four two-story frame dwelling houses, of 6 rooms and hall each. These lots embrace a full square of ground, fronting 200 feet on Bedford avenue, and bounded on each end by a wide street, with an 18 feet alley in the rear. On the premises is a pump of lasting and excellent water, and the surface of the lots is level and needs neither filling nor grading to prepare them for building purposes, and being in a section of the city where property is increasing very rapidly in value, make them desirable for an investment, especially as the present houses rent for enough to pay a good interest on the sum asked for the whole property. Call soon on the undersigned and secure a cheap, safe and paying investment.

Also, A FARM OF 160 ACRES of good land, situated in East Wheatfield township, Indiana Co., Pa., 90 acres of which is cleared land, in good cultivation, 20 acres being in excellent meadow. The improvements are a two-story frame dwelling house of 4 rooms, a frame bank barn, 36x60 feet, with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings, all in good repair. It is in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools, churches, stores, &c., and will be sold very low for cash or approved securities.

Also, a RIVER BOTTOM FARM of 76 acres, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of

TO FARMERS.

THE HAY RAKE "WELCOME."

PATENTED 1865 AND 1867.

Is the best Rake made. It will rake heavier hay, carry it farther, load and unload itself easier than any other rake. It is self-operating; a child 8 years old can do the work of a full hand. Hundreds of certificates could be given, one of which is below:

"GIRARD, Erie Co., Pa., July 5, 1867.

"I have used the Welcome Hay Rake, manufactured by W. W. Wallace, Pittsburgh, Pa., and recommend it to farmers. It is good in light and heavy hay; is easy on man and horse; is a complete gleaner of grain and stubble; is simple in construction and easily kept in order.

JOSEPH ARBUCKLE."

All orders directed to 319 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., or at the works in Columbiana, Ohio, promptly attended to. Sold wholesale and retail by W. W. WALLACE.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, July 9, 1868.

In our markets to-day there was very little doing except in Flour and Bacon. In these articles there is considerable demand and at stiffening in prices, but, as yet, no change to note. Old Red Winter Wheat is in moderate request. Nearly all other kinds of grain are drooping, with only a light demand. To take the market over, prices of most articles are but little better than nominal, sales being made over and under their quotations. We quote wholesale prices as follows:

FLOUR—The Flour market was considerably excited to-day, owing to reports from the western markets. There are no stocks of good Flour in the western markets, and none here. It is anticipated that there will be an advance here in prices unless there is an immediate giving way in prices west. The favorite brands of Flour called for in this market, have now to be ordered ahead, and millers are generally behind their orders; consequently they are forcing no Flour on the markets. We quote fancy White Wheat Flour at $12; Jenkins' Lilly Mills, $11; White River, $11,50; good Spring Wheat brands, $10,25 to $10,50; medium, $10, and common and low grades, $8,50 to $9,50. Rye Flour, $9,75 to $10 per barrel.

GRAIN—Sales of Oats from first hands were made at 73 to 75c, and from store at 79 to 80c; in elevator 2 car loads sold at 78c. Rye from first hands is selling at $1,65 to $1,70. In Corn there is little doing. Sales reported of 4 cars in elevator, the best yellow shelled, at $1,06; 2 cars shelled in elevator at $1, and 70 sacks prime Ear at $1,08, in depot. No Barley offering, and prices are entirely nominal. The mills are buying old Winter Wheat at $2,20 to $2,25, but some holders are asking $2,30. It may be remarked that the transactions in grain are so small, and prices so unsettled, that quotations cannot be given correctly.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged at 13½ for shoulders; 15¾ to 16 for Ribbed, and 17½ to 18 for Clear Sides, and 19½ to 19¾ for canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard 17½ to 17¾. Dried Beef 21 to 22. Mess Pork, $28,50 to $28,75.

BUTTER—Receipts liberal, with a fair demand for choice packed at 23 to 25c; with an occasional sale at a trifle higher of extra packages.

EGGS—Steady at 21c.

LARD OIL—In very fair demand; we now quote at $1,18 for No. 2, and $1,38 to $1,40 for No. 1.

DRIED FRUIT—The market is very dull, and prices nominally for Dried Peaches 11 to 12c, and for Apples, 5½ to 6½c, as to quality.

SALT—To the trade we quote at $1,75 to $1,80, and from store in small lots at $2 per barrel.

APPLES—Retail dealers are in receipt of new Norfolk Apples at a cost of $13 per barrel.

POTATOES—New crop steady with regular sales at $6 per bbl, and choice old Potatoes at $1,20 to $1,25.

HAY—The receipts are light, with a good demand, and $20 to $25 for old Timothy, and $15 to $20 for new Hay.

New York Produce Market.

Lard a shade firmer, with a moderate demand; sales 750 tierces at 16a17c for steam, and 17¼a18c for kettle rendered; also sales of 250 tierces steam, buyer, July, at 17½c; also 250 tierces do, buyer, August, at 17⅝c. Butter quiet at 20a28c for Ohio, and 28a35c for State. Cheese firm at 10a15¼c. Freights to Liverpool dull with engagements 200,000 bush corn per steamer at 4¾d.

LATEST.—Flour closed quiet, with holders rather more disposed to realize on the common grades. Wheat dull and drooping at $2,00 for No. 2 and $2,09a2,10 for No. 1 spring. Rye quiet at $1,78a1,87. Oats dull at 85c in store and 87c afloat. Corn dull and heavy at $1,11a1,13 for new mixed western afloat. Pork firm at $27,95a28,00 for mess, cash and regular; sales of 500 bbls mess, seller, August, at $28,12. Beef quiet and unchanged. Cut Meats firm, with a fair demand. Bacon quiet and steady. Lard firm at 17¾a17½c for fair to prime steam. Eggs steady at 23a25c.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, July 9.—Flour is a shade firmer but not higher, at $9a9,25 for family. Wheat in better demand and prices higher at $2 for No. 2 winter, and $2,10 for No. 2 do. Corn firmer at 84a85c for ear. Oats quiet at 75c for No. 1. Rye dull and prices declining at $1,55a1,60 for No. 1. Cotton is quiet and unchanged at 30a30½c for medium. No sales of tobacco. Provisions firmer and holders asking higher prices generally though the demand is light. Mess Pork held firmly at $28. Bulk meats at 11½a11¾c for shoulders, and 14c for sides. Bacon held at 12¾a13c for shoulders and 16¼a16¾c for clear rib and clear sides. Lard could not have been bought below 17½, and not much offering, and holders have generally withdrawn from the market. Mess pork could have been sold at $27,75, bulk meats at 11½a13¾, bacon at 12¾ for shoulders, and 16a16½ for sides. Lard at 17c. Butter scarce and wanted at 26a30c for fresh. Eggs dull at 17c. STOCKS.

Stocks steady. A remarkable forgery was discovered to-day, viz: A number of certificates of five shares each were altered to one hundred shares of Fort Wayne stock; also similar certificates of Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Total amount in circulation not yet ascertained. A man named Hoyt is supposed to be the author, he having recently bought fifty shares of Fort Wayne of Robinson & Cox, with instructions to deliver in ten certificates of five shares each, and one hundred shares of Pittsburgh of Gelston & Bussing, divided in a similar way. Rumor says spurious certificates of Western Union Telegraph stock are also in circulation. The Rock Island Company has declared ten per cent. dividend, payable August 1st, interest-bearing scrip to be redeemed when the cash balance of the Company is released from present injunction.

RIVER NEWS.

The river, contrary to general expectation, is receding again with but twenty-six inches in the channel by Monongahela marks last evening. It was thought the rains of the past few days would have caused a swell of two or three feet, but these expectations have not been realized. The weather continues cloudy and unsettled with indications of more rain.

—The body found a few days since near Swan creek, has been fully identified as the body of Capt. Norton, by his son, who shipped the remains on the Potomac, for Wheeling.

—The machinery of the Mollie Dozier was sold at auction at St. Louis, Saturday. Three boilers brought $80 each, and the balance of the "outfit" was sold as iron scraps at one and one-third cents per pound.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Wednesday: The following boats are expecting to enter the New Orleans trade: Maggie Hays, Capt. Barney Martin; Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean; Lorena, Capt. Sam. Shuman; Melnotte, Capt. D. W. Marratta.........The Lorena will be off the Eureka docks to-day, and drop down the city wharf. The Maggie Hays has about 400 tuns iron ore for Wheeling and Pittsburgh, which will probably be purchased here by Alex. Swift.

—A St. Louis telegram under date of Tuesday says: The river is steadily declining at this port. Low water to all points will soon be general. The Missouri is falling, with six feet in the channel from Lexington to the mouth. Freights from the upper Mississippi and Illinois are arriving in limited quantities. Owing to dullness of trade, one steamer has withdrawn from the Peoria line. The Richmond arrived at Cairo and laid up. She was aground five days, and got off by sinking barges under her guards and pumping them out, raising her sufficient to be pulled over. The towboat J L Hyatt is reported sunk at Island No. 1. The arrivals are the Welcome, from Omaha; Shamrock, from Cincinnati; Lizzie Gill and Frank Pargoud, from New Orleans, with fair trips. Boats to leave—W. J. Lewis, for Omaha; Ida Rees, for Pittsburgh; Shark and tow, four barges, for New Orleans. The Importer, from the Upper Missouri, arrived at St. Joseph, yesterday, with $50,000 in treasure. A large number of Indians are camped along the river, but they were generally quiet. Father Desmet was at Ft. Rice with fifty hostile chiefs. A grand council was to have commenced on the 1st inst.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, facteries, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

THE Democracy of New York lost their best political wire-worker in the death of Peter Cagger. He had been identified with the party during the last thirty years, and death found him in a Convention in political business.

THE success of SEYMOUR at New York is a sore blow to the PENDLETON men of this region, and all the more so that they can now see it was the result of a secret intrigue formed specially for PENDLETON'S defeat. They look as if they felt conscious of having been deliberately sold out. Their long faces and disappointed looks are pitiful to behold.

IF THE DEMOCRATS look glum and sour over SEYMOUR'S nomination, the Republicans, on the contrary, look pleased and gratified. They are better satisfied with it than with any other nomination the party could possibly have made. It was edifying yesterday afternoon, to look on the faces of Republicans, all smiles, and contrast them with Democratic countenances, sour, disappointed and in every way unamiable.

SOME good comes out of every evil; and the severe rebuke administered to CHASE, HANCOCK and JOHNSON is the good that has come out of the Democratic National Convention. Poor CHASE! Only four pitiful votes, after going down so low and behaving so mean! The rebuke to HANCOCK and JOHNSON is not quite so severe, for they did not before stand so high to fall so low; but they must, alike with CHASE, feel mean and disgraced beyond redemption.

THE nomination of SEYMOUR was an astonisher to the Democrats of this city. It was one of the many things that were not dreamed of in their philosophy. And the astonishment, strange to say, produced stupor instead of excitement. Not a cheer was heard from any Democratic throat when the telegraphic announcement of the nomination was made. It failed to provoke the slightest enthusiasm in any one. It took the party most unpleasantly by surprise.

IT HAS been said that the family physician of HORATIO SEYMOUR advised him against being a candidate for President, because, there being a hereditary taint of insanity in the family, the unusual excitement of a Presidential election would be sure to develope it. So long as he remained perfectly sane, HORATIO persistently refused to be a candidate, but, as he has now accepted the nomination, it is fair to infer that the hereditary taint has proved too much for him.

IF SEYMOUR'S ability to discharge the duties of President are to be gauged by the capacity he showed as the President of the rag-tag Convention, he must be adjudged utterly incapable. He was a dead failure as a presiding officer. He forgot this, overlooked that, was oblivious of the rules, blundered in his decisions, and then reversed them, and made a complete boggle of it, generally. So thorough and complete was his break-down, that he was compelled to call to the chair one of the Vice-Presidents, who was sufficiently versed in Parliamentary law to make the proceedings pass off in a tolerable way. Evidently, HORATIO was never cut out for a President.

WHEN the news came yesterday, that SEYMOUR was nominated, there was no gathering of enthusiastic Democrats at the office of the Post to respond to the nomination. The highest number that could be counted there, at any one time, was six! The fact is, it was not what might be called an inspiriting nomination. It was probably discussed, and not very complimentarily, in the drinking saloons, by the awfully disappointed victims of it, but the streets were as bare and as quiet as if no nomination had been made. The hundreds of excited and expectant Democrats visible on the corners just before, suddenly disappeared, leaving the discussion of SEYMOUR to the gratified Republicans.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The New York gathering of Confederate Congressmen, rebel Generals and Northern Copperheads yesterday laid all other candidates aside and nominated HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, for the Presidency. This was the culmination of an intrigue which had, for twenty-one ballots, artfully played one prominent aspirant against another, until the object of the intriguers—the slaughter of PENDLETON and HANCOCK—had been neatly and effectively accomplished. The Convention had sat for six days, including Sunday, which seems to have been a Democratic working-day. The Southern and Western delegates were equally out of patience and of funds; every other scheme and combination, which could stand in Mr. SEYMOUR'S way, had been blown up and shivered to fragments, and the delegates, exhausted and demoralized, were sufficiently subdued to be led quietly, like lambs in the hands of the butcher, to their inevitable fate.

Mr. SEYMOUR thoroughly represents the Copperhead element of his party. He is pronounced and thoroughly an exponent of its most positive and ultra opinions, on all National questions. Repeatedly committed against the PENDLETON heresy, he has opposed its incorporation into the party creed, although he must now appear to subscribe to its half-way expression in the Democratic platform. His record throughout the war was one of imperfectly disguised sympathy with the rebellion. His disloyal efforts to excite his own State and its metropolitan city to resist the Federal authority, and to weaken the efficiency of its arms on Southern battle-fields, by awakening a spirit actively treasonable in the center of the loyal States, his shameful part in inflaming the New York mobs to the firing of orphan asylums, the constructive murder of innocent children who perished in the flames, and to the incipient rebellion, in that city of forty thousand Democratic majority,' which, resisting the drafts to bloodshed, required the prompt intervention of the Federal Government, and was only suppressed by the strong hand of its military power, can never be forgotten. HORATIO SEYMOUR was the very man, of all others, who was conspicuously responsible for this abortive treason. And from that day forward, he has stood convicted of its guilt. His harangues to that infuriated mob, his absolute failure to labor loyally for its suppression, and for the upholding of the Federal authority, his undisguised hostility to the National efforts to maintain the supremacy of the Republic—a hostility which he was never able to conceal, whether as a citizen, or as Governor of his State—and his subsequent sympathies with the continued rebel opposition to the reconstruction of their States in the interests of loyalty,—certainly nothing more is needed to show that the Democracies of 1860 and 1868 are identical, and that SEYMOUR fitly represents them both.

Our political history does not record an intrigue more selfish and shameless than this, which has achieved his nomination at the expense of the other candidates and, as he has himself acknowledged, of his own honor. But this is purely a Democratic affair, and we feel no concern in it, except to congratulate our Republican friends upon that action of our opponents which, dishonored by its own admissions now, will in due time be still more effectively condemned by the popular voice.

The same party has nominated Mr. F. P. BLAIR for Vice President, according the place to him on the first ballot, and by acclamation. This man acted with the Republicans in '60; he turned against us subsequently through a personal and local quarrel in Missouri, and is now a Copperhead so extreme, that he asserts it to be the duty of the President elect "to declare the reconstruction acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State governments," &c., &c. In the same letter, he says that "it is idle to talk of greenbacks, gold, the public faith, the public credit," until the Constitution "shall be restored by a President who will trample into dust the usurpations of Congress known as the reconstruction acts." This intemperate and revolutionary letter from which we quote, was written by him expressly to place him as a candidate before the Convention. "He wished to stand before the Convention on that issue as the only one worth contending for." The Convention takes him and his platform, and thereby illustrates its own spirit and intentions in the clearest light.

These nominations may have been intended to save the party organization, but after the election there will be only a skeleton of it left to be preserved. Arrayed against them must be every lover of the Union—every loyal hand that upheld the ark of the National honor in the fearful war of the rebellion—every loyal heart which gave then, and still gives, its prayers and its hopes for the peace and the glory of the Republic—every voter who believes that treason is a crime, that rebellion was wickedness, and that our only path to peace and National prosperity lies in the perpetuation of the Union—every citizen who believes in the God-given rights of a common humanity, and in the supremacy of a loyal government over a loyal people—all those who prefer that the Southern contest be not re-opened—all who desire that the Southern people should be suffered to make a fair trial of the new scheme of self-government which they have just adopted—all who think that the country has suffered long enough from the strifes, dissensions and the bloody war which this Democratic party brought upon us eight years since—all who uphold the National faith—all who believe that true Democracy should be Honesty, Patriotism, Peace and Equal Justice—all who find in Republicanism, in the Union, in Liberty and Christianity the living and practical ideas which alone should rule the destinies of the American people. And the array will be led by GRANT and COLFAX to a brilliant triumph in November.

OUR MUNICIPAL NOMINATIONS.

The City Republican Executive Committee meets soon, to decide upon the call for a Convention to nominate a Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, for Republican support at the October election. There are urgent reasons for the desire that the Committee shall be led to the adoption of the most effective measures for securing the ascendency of Republican principles in every department of the city government, by the popular choice of such candidates as shall faithfully represent the very large Republican majority of our citizens. We have been admonished, by a sore experience, that the plan of nomination hitherto in vogue is liable to very grave objections, such, indeed, as to imperil the Republican control of municipal affairs. The incidents and results of the last contest for the Mayoralty, were such as to prove that the time has come for the party to get out of the old ruts and upon some new track, in its method of effecting nominations, or else that some other remedy must be devised for the mischiefs, in past experience so flagrant, which have practically nullified the benefits legitimately due to a frank and full consultation among honorable politicians. It has come to be understood, and admitted freely, even by the veteran manipulators of nominating Conventions, that some change must be made, in the interest of a more perfect harmony, of purer and more straightforward tactics, of a fairer trial of the popular strength of the respective candidates for the nominations, and of a more cordial acquiescence by all in the selections when made. It is not so much the mode of appointing the delegates that is found objectionable; indeed we question if any better plan in that respect can be practically devised, than the present. But the dissatisfactions, the heart-burnings and aversions toward the ticket, which have heretofore embarrassed the Republican action, have resulted almost exclusively from allegations of misconduct against the delegates. Year after year, the ticket has been assailed, with more or less persistent acrimony, as the product of log-rolling combinations, by which minorities among delegates are charged with parcelling out among themselves the offices which neither of them has had the separate strength to secure. It is not to be wondered at that the friends of A, who has really more votes than any other man for a nomination, should complain at finding themselves beaten by an opposition which secures a majority support by going for B, C and D, for the other offices which they respectively desire. Conventions organized in this way have come to be too often controlled by "rings," thus made up among the aspirants who are really less prominent, and who could never have secured, respectively, majorities of the delegates upon a square popular vote.

It would be well for the Committee to consider, not only the expediency, but the need, in fact, for breaking up this faulty and dangerous propensity to ring-tactics and log-rolling. They will be entirely right in concluding that any Municipal ticket, each of the candidates upon which is fairly and undeniably placed thereon by the preference of a majority of the Republican voters attending the primary meetings, will be cordially and triumphantly sustained by the hearty and undivided votes of the Union Republicans of this city. No such ticket will ever be bolted, scratched or defeated. With such a ticket, the polls in this city will invariably open with the Republicans confident and cordially united, and will as regularly close upon swelled and still swelling Republican majorities. And with that conclusion, the Committee should have no hesitation in recommending the amendment of the old system, in such particulars and to such an extent as shall the most faithfully conduce to the more cordial solidarity of the Republican party in Pittsburgh.

Quite sure as we are that this subject will receive due consideration from the Committee, we deem it not improper to suggest that the Republicans of Philadelphia, making the same objections to a similar system which had for years dragged down their local politics from bad to worse, until the most disastrous results to the party were threatened, have recently devised and applied a remedy of the most radical and efficient character. They revised their Convention system so as to cut this log-rolling business up by the roots. Their Executive Committee, abandoning the old plan of one Convention and one set of delegates for filling the nominations to all the offices, adopted the simple, natural and most effective alternative, by ordering the assemblage, on the same day and hour, of separate Conventions, and delegates for each office. The effect of this action was magical. Thirty-three different Conventions assembled, each of them having but one office to consider, and all but one of these accomplished its work promptly and harmoniously. The exception resulted in a schism, but this concerned one office only; as to the other thirty-two, these schismatics were as entirely agreed as any of the party, and their split has itself already been healed by the withdrawal of both candidates, and that Convention will re-assemble to make another nomination. Here was one of the beauties of the new system, that even a split upon one office could not extend to the rest of the ticket, which the other delegates had harmoniously agreed upon. We have said the effect was magical. For the first time in the politics of that city, a great party had accomplished its nominations without leaving an element of dissatisfaction and weakness behind. Every name upon it was placed there by a majority of the delegates fairly elected upon a square vote. Log-rolling was played out completely. If it existed at all, it was in the primary meetings, where it could do little harm, as long as the people were there to watch it and have a hand in it. And, as when the Philadelphia Convention adjourned three weeks ago, so to-day not a murmur of dissatisfaction has been heard. The party is harmonious, compact and resolute, and the October election will witness a full and hearty vote. That is precisely what we want in Pittsburgh, and we doubt if our Committee can more contribute to it than by adopting the Philadelphia plan. Its application is certainly much easier here since but three Conventions, and as many sets of delegates, will be required. Could there be a more opportune period for making the change?

VERDICTS OF THE INQUEST.

The bereaved Democracy of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and other Western States have been summoned by an afflictive dispensation, to view the mortal remains of their friend, GEORGE H. PENDLETON. Cut off in the flower of his strong life, in the greenest bloom of his picture-esque beauty, in the most exuberant vigor of his manly strife against those hated bonds which have entangled the limbs and threatened to strangle the breath of a virtuous and incorruptible party—this hapless victim of a most foul assassination lies cold and stiff in the gory jaws of political death. Not even the spirited and vigilant care of his Escort—that devoted band which, since the demise of its leader, has evaporated into the viewless air—could be effective to guard "Young Greenbacks" from the murderous blow. The assassins slew him in the dark cloisters of Tammany, and only his gaping wounds can tell the tale, "the deep damnation of his taking off." The assassins live; they even boast of the deed. Those hated bonds are wound and twisted and redoubled, closer and tighter about Democratic limbs, and the melancholy prospect is that, not only a candidate basely slain, but a party hopelessly betrayed will ere long be the subjects of "crowner's quests."

But another corpse claims official notice. With some difficulty, and only after a close examination by the few friends who knew the deceased intimately while living, it is recognized. The death has been recent, but decomposition seems to have very rapidly set in, and too close proximity to the body is especially offensive to the senses of the by-standers. But there is no doubt that it is really all that remains on earth of the late Chief Justice CHASE, sometimes known while living as "Old Greenbacks." Shocking as is the spectacle which the body presents, a large crowd is collected, of all shades of opinion and from every quarter, representing in fact every party among his late fellow citizens, which, instead of being properly awe-stricken by the scene, indecently mock, and sneer, and ridicule the lifeless clay. A jury, hastily impannelled, hears all the accessible evidence, and has no hesitation in finding it to be a clear case of suicide. The deceased could hardly have been of sane mind, since witnesses declare that he had made repeated attempts upon his own political life, finally accomplishing his wretched purpose at New York. The verdict is accordingly: "Perished by his own hand, under a long-continued aberration of mind, supposed to have been induced by an intemperate indulgence in political ambition. We, the jury, find him very dead, and smelling very bad."

The remains of both were removed, the first to be embalmed and then enshrined by thousands of mourner's in a splendid mausoleum, while the others were hustled into a hole in the earth and covered up at the public expense. They both sleep the sleep that shall know no political waking!

A MYSTERY, AND A REVELATION.

On Tuesday night, after six ineffectual ballotings in the Convention, it became evident that the powerful New York delegation, with such interests as they could control in the other States, entertained some mysterious purpose as to the nomination to be made—a mystery so impenetrable that, beyond the intent to defeat PENDLETON, nothing more could be divined. Speculations were rife as to the preference which they would ultimately disclose; some opinions led one way and some still another, the belief that CHASE was really their favorite perhaps predominating. True, Mr. SEYMOUR had been spoken of; but he had repeatedly, the last time from the very platform of the Convention, declined the honor, absolutely declaring that he could in no event be a candidate. It was insisted in some quarters that this refusal might be withdrawn, but the public finally agreed that he was out of the field, and that his name would not solve the mystery. That night, riding in the Central Park, his friend, Mr. PETER CAGGER, the most conspicuous and influential political manager of the New York Democracy, was thrown from his carriage and almost instantly killed. A reporter says:

> Just before the catastrophe, and yet when it was inevitable, Mr. Cagger is reported to have exclaimed, "This is the last of it, John. But tell them to stick to Seymour, if poss—." These were his last words.

His companion, Mr. JOHN E. DEVLIN, survived, although fearfully hurt, to report those last words. The 'bated breath of the dying politician revealed the whole purpose of the New York Democracy. Their game had been played, from first to last—and he knew it, for he had been its controlling spirit—to secure the nomination of HORATIO SEYMOUR. That was a fine stroke of finesse, which allowed the public to be deluded with the idea that CHASE would be the beneficiary of their perfected designs; a game with only that object would have been shallow, too palpable to suit these adroit politicians. The candidate's own reiterated declinations were but CÆSAR'S thrice putting the crown away, but the Lupercal nevertheless heard the cheers for his final assumption of the purple. The intrigue was deeply laid, and its revelation was delayed until its masterly consummation, except in this gasping, unstudied, heart-confession of poor CAGGER, who, no longer the astute and scheming politician, hung for a moment, trembling and conscious mortality, the natural man and nothing more, in the very gateway of death. More than this, the dying man's last utterances, thus given to his friend, reveal the devoted attachment of his school of politicians to the candidate whose cause they had espoused. This attachment was quite as much personal as political, and had been cemented by thirty years of the most confidential intercourse in the councils of that party.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Train Breaks Through a Bridge and Two Passenger Cars Wrecked—List of the Killed and Wounded—Bridge Supposed to Have Been Tampered With.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ERIE, Pa., July 9.—The Erie express train on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, which left Erie at 7.40 last evening, broke through a bridge over French creek, about three-quarters of a mile east of Union Mills. The engine, tender and baggage car got over safely, but the two passenger cars went through the bridge, the hind car running on top of the other, making a complete wreck. There was about five feet of water in the creek.

The following is the list of the killed: Mrs. J. A. Peese, Flat Rock, Seneca county, Ohio, and her two children, aged two years and four months, and fourteen months; Miss Angie S. Brainard, of Erie, formerly of Vernon, Oneida county, New York; Jennie Patton, daughter of Scott Patton, of Erie, aged three years.

The wounded, severely, are as follows: Mrs. Andrew McCrea, Concord, Erie county, Pa., her shoulder and abdomen severely hurt, hopes of recovery; E. Hipple, Erie severe injury, face bruised and body generally; Frank D. Reeves, Warren, Pa., leg, back and body and artery in left hand cut; Mrs. Jerome Woodbury, Jefferson county, Pa., severely, neck and shoulder; John Boyce, conductor, serious internal injuries

The following were slightly wounded: Warren Post, Jamestown, New York; C. O. Bowman, Corry, Pa.; N. R. Bates, Titusville, Pa.; L. W. Holmes, Spartansburg, Pa.; H. Bartlett, Corry, Pa.; H. Baker, Corry, Pa.; Wm. Furey, brakeman; Chas. Freedy, baggageman; Scott Patton, Erie, wife and three children, all slightly wounded.

The bridge was examined within two weeks and pronounced perfectly safe. A heavy freight train, with an engine ten tons heavier than the passenger engine, went over the bridge yesterday afternoon. The bolts of the bridge were found with the nuts unscrewed and it is supposed the bridge was tampered with to plunder the train, several passengers being robbed on the train while in the wreck and the baggage broken open and rifled of valuables.

A special train with medical assistance was sent from here last evening, the injured receiving every attention.

Another Railroad Accident.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The baggage car, two passenger coaches and the sleeping car on the Rutland and Washington Railroad, near Cambridge, above Troy, were thrown from the track early on Tuesday morning, by the displacement of a rail, Ten or twelve passengers were injured, three of them, an old lady and two men, probably fatally. The passenger coaches were considerably broken, and the baggage car campletely demolished.

Heavy Rain Storm.

PULASKI, Pa., July 9, 1868.

EDS. GAZETTE: This section was visited yesterday afternoon by a heavy rain storm, which did much damage to roads, bridges, fences and crops in its path.

The railroad bridge across Deer Creek, at its junction with Shenango, was carried across the latter stream and its heavy stone abutments were left near the middle of the river.

This village is on Shenango, about a mile above the mouth of Deer Creek, and the rise of the latter stream was so rapid that the bed of the Shenango was not sufficient to carry off its waters, in consequence of which a current was started up the Shenango and over the mill-dam of Davis, Ketch & Co., at this place, and the dam having been built to resist the passage of the water down stream, was considerably injured. It is said that General Pillow got his "ditch on the wrong side" in Mexico, but who ever found a dam, before this, with the "spill" on the wrong side. The miller, busy at his grinding, was rather astonished to find that the water had "about faced," and was taking his wheels in reverse, coming out just where it had hitherto gone in.

The Pendleton Escort.

But few days have elapsed since there passed through our dingy, dirty city, gallant band of heroes, who were wending their way to the great city of New York to exert mighty influence towards making their favorite, one "young greenbacks" by name a candidate for the Presidency. They came from the pork-packing village of Cincinnati, and had written on their brow the sacred words "greenbacks for bonds." Buoyant with hope, every heart swelling with the importance of the mission, ardent boisterous, intoxicated with animal spirits they marched through our streets impressing the onlooker with the magnitude of the business they had undertaken. They were to regulate the great conclave of unterrified about to assemble in the wicked metropolis of the country, and "only this and nothing more." They were the Pendleton Escort. But, alas! These men were slain. Their bodies pierced through and through with the poisoned arrows of the greedy bond holders, will to-day pass through the town. Their elastic step will not be heard on our streets. No shout will be raised, no exultant hand wave a banner over their remains. They died as they lived—in their sins. With a greenback folded on their stiff bodies, a bond clasped in their hands, wrapped up in the Confederate flag, these heroes will pass through the town unwept, unhonored and unsung, and yet they are not unworthy the sympathies of those who bewail the "lost cause." Into the valley of death rode these men. Verily, "in the midst of life we are in death," and "out of this bond-age there is no redemption."

Twenty-Seventh Senatorial District—Hon. James Kerr, of Butler County, Nominated.

The Conferees of the Twenty-Seventh Senatorial District met pursuant to adjournment, yesterday morning at eleven o'clock and after several ballots, without making a nomination, adjourned to meet at three o'clock P. M.

At three o'clock the Conferees reassembled, and after several unsuccessful ballots adjourned to meet at nine o'clock P. M.

Evening Session.—At nine o'clock in the evening the Committee of Conference again assembled, and on motion of Mr. Haus, of Lawrence county, the name of Mr. McKinley was withdrawn.

On motion of Mr. McCandless, another ballot was taken, which resulted in the nomination of Hon. James Kerr, of Butler, by a vote of six to three, the Armstrong delegates voting for Bonner.

Notwithstanding over a hundred ballots were taken, the meeting was a harmonious one in the end, and the best of feeling prevailed from the beginning to the close.

MORTGAGES.

Same day eleven mortgages were filed.

Twenty-Fourth Congressional District.—The conferees of the Twenty-fourth Congressional District met yesterday morning pursuant to adjournment, and continued in session until one o'clock, when they adjourned to meet at two p. m. At two o'clock they re-assembled, and after several unsuccesful ballots, adjourned to meet at ten o'clock this morning.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

When the system is once affected it will not rally of its own accord; it needs help—it must be strengthened and invigorated; this is especially the case when the

KIDNEYS, BLADDER OR URINARY ORGANS

Are affected. For immediate relief and permanent cure,

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Are a perfectly safe and reliable specific. This well known remedy has effected a large number of speedy and remarkable cures, and have never failed to give relief when taken according to directions.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Are purely vegetable, and contain no mercury or calomel. They do not exhaust the system, but on the contrary they act as a tonic, imparting new tone and vigor to the organs and strengthening the whole body. These Pills have stood the test of thirty-five years, and are still gaining in popularity.

SECURE HEALTH IN ADVANCE.

It is as difficult to extinguish a raging fever as a raging fire; but you can prevent a conflagration by rendering your dwelling fire-proof, and you can prevent an attack of fever by invigorating and purifying your "house of clay."

The outside pressure" upon the constitution and the vital powers at this season is tremendous. Every pore of the millions which cover the surface of the body is a drain upon its substance and its strength. To meet this depletion, to keep up the stamina under such a constant outflow of dissolving flesh, a tonic and invigorant is absolutely necessary, and time, that tries all things, has proved that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS impart a degree of strength and resistant power to the over-taxed vital forces, which is unattainable by any other known means. The effect of this inestimable vegetable preparation is to increase the appetite, accelerate digestion, tone the secretive organs, give firmness to the nerves, purify the blood, cheer the spirits, and, by thus rallying all the forces of the body, enable it to defy the enervating influence of the heat, and pass triumphantly through the trying ordeal of the summer months. As a safeguard against epidemics, and a preventive of the feebleness, lassitude and prostration, of which so many thousands complain at this season, it has a national reputation founded on twenty-five years of uninterrupted and unequalled success.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculair mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

640 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive;

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of NEARLY NINE PER CENT.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

Gold was rather weak and dull to-day at 140⅝ to 140½, with only a limited business doing. The disposition in the gold room is for the present to keep down the premium on gold, and if possible to depress it below 140, in order to force timid holders to sell out. Ultimately higher quotations are expected, since the continued heavy export demand for gold will soon exhaust the present supply on the market. A close inquiry in the quantity of our exportable produce and their relative market values abroad must convince us that the export of the balance of the season will be vsry light until the cotton crop is reached, of whfch but a limited quantity can come on the market before the beginning of December.

Bonds seem to have touched bottom so soon and advanced with the decline of Pendleton's chances for the Presidency. Quotations in Enrope were well sustained, and the whole movement of the Democratic Convention was no doubt fully anticipated tnere. Operations in bonds could be bought at the low quotations, and those who held on to their securities lose nothing but the interest on their money.

Stocks were very dull early in the day, but at the close there was a better feeling, and prices were from ¼ to ½ per cent better. Fort Wayne advanced ½, and the eastern roads remained unchanged. Express stocks are just firm enough to induce parties who have bought at higher rates to-day now to equalize, but the cliques and large owners of the stock are so treacherous, that investors have lost all confidence in the stock.

Mining shares are dull. Money is easier, although there is a general complaint of scarcity. Business very quiet.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140½; 1881 bonds, 113¼; 5-20s, 1862, 113¾; 1864 do, 110¾; 1865 do, 111¼; new, 1865 and 1867, 108⅝; Ten Forties, 107¼; Seven Thirties, 108¾.

New York Central, 134⅛; Erie, 70½; Michigan Southern, 91⅛; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87; Northwestern, common, 78¾; Preferred, 81¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 109½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 107¾; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 29¼; Merchants Union Express, 24⅞; Western Union Telegraph, 34⅝; Corydon, 30; Quicksilver, 20¾; Quartz Hill, 1,15.

ENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 9, 1868.

CATTLE.

There was a very full supply of cattle on sale this week, but with an unusual number of buyers, and a good demand, the market was active, and a much larger number changed hands than last week. The quality of the cattle was not very good, the great proportion being light steers suitable only for putting on grass, while the demand was mainly for good shipping stock, suitable for retailing in the eastern markets. Prices compared with last week have undergone but little change, though buyers as a general thing, are still clamoring for concessions. Prime fat cattle may be quoted at 7 to 7,50 and extra at 7,75 to 8; as will be seen by reference to the report sales, there was not a single sale at 8 cents, but we have no doubt that a drove of extra fat steers, had there have any such here, would have brought that figure. Medium butchers stock sold at 6,50 to 6,75, and stock cattle may be quoted at 4,50 to 6, according to quality and condition.

Some dealers are now inclined to believe, that as the recent rains will start up the grass again, farmers will not be in such a hurry about sending their cattle to market and as a consequence, diminished receipts will be the result, though but slight hopes are entertained of any advance in prices. Besides, there is not much inquiry for stock cattle; the majority of the buyers in this market are from Philadelphia and New York, and they want fat cattle, and as a general thing, will buy no other kind.

SHEEP.

The arrivals of sheep have also be large, and with no increased demand, t market was a very hard one for holde prices compared with last week, havi dropped considerably. As will be seen reference to sales, there was but a sin sale reported at 5 cts; and but very few anything over 4,25; the demand for N York was not as large as usual, thou Philadelphia buyers took hold pre freely—at low prices. Two droves w sold at 2,75 cts per pound, and one at $1 per head. This class of sheep is not in d mand, and to effect sales at all sellers compelled to throw out big inducements

Holmes, Lafferty & Glass 92 for Sargea to Loyd, at 2,60; 190 for Knowles to P cock & Co; at 3,55; 203 for Casselman to J Aull at 3¾; 173 for Sargeant to Dietrich 4¼; 187 for Wayman to same at 3,30; 231 McFadden to Pidcock & Co; at 5.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 9, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market was rathe quiet and while, as yesterday, there wa more inclination to sell, holders neverthe less were firm and refused to make cen cessions in order to effect sale. Fifteen cent seems to be regarded as the ruling pric both for present and future deliveries, an while holders are unwilling to accept any thing less, buyers are obstinate, and refus to give anything more. The sales were 1,000 bbls last half July at 15; 1,500 to b delivered between the 25th of July, and 5th of August, buyers option, at 15; and 2,500 al year—resale of contract—difference in cas —buyers option, at 15. We have no new developments in regard to additiona strikes further than that the report in re gard to two new strikes, noted in last re port, were not contradicted.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is quiet and unchanged. The sales were: 5,0 each August to December at 35¼; 1,00 August at 35; 1.500 same at 35—last half; 500 do do, at 35; and 1,000 all year, buyers option, at 36. Notwithstanding Antwerp has still further advanced, being quoted to-day at 53, the advance there has not, as yet, met with any corresponding response here, as prices have undergone little or no change either here or in the East. The market however is strong at quotations, and so far as we can learn, there is but comparatively little oil offering.

E ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

ort of the Committee on Inspection—he Condition of the School Buildings—he Improvements Necessary—The At- ndance and Government of Schools—nportant Suggestions.

he following is the report of the Com- tee of Inspection appointed by the ırd of Controllers of the Allegheny City olic Schools, and presented to the Board heir last meeting:

o the Board of Controllers of Allegheny y: The Committee of Inspection pro- ed for by resolution adopted at the meet- of June 2d, 1868, would respectfully re- t:

Ve understand the design of our appoint- nt to be to inspect buildings, the condi- n of the schools, the evidences of capaci- and efficiency on the part of the teachers l of progress by the pupils, and to make atever suggestions may strike us as im- tant to the educational interests of the v. All the schools have been visited by ur Committee, except those in Snyder's llow, and the colored schools on Web- r street. Our appointment has been so ent, and so near the close of the school m, that in order to reach all, we were npelled to pass through the schools in ste. Unfortunately in the First, Second d Third Ward Schools we found large mbers of the pupils absent, owing to an mense concert conducted for some two three days by Prof. Slack, and in which children were performers. This seem- to have rather demoralized these ools, and ought not to be allowed to ur again.

The principals and teachers in every in- nce received us kindly. In the primary ools we did not stop to hear any recita- s. In the Medium, Grammar and gh Schools generally, we heard the pu- s in reading and mental arithmetic. But e detailed statement of our observations present as follows:

I. BUILDINGS.

The rooms in the First ward building are mfortable and commodious, and some re- rd has been paid to cleanliness, in floors, ilings and walls. [illegible] we would suggest at measures should be adopted to have ebecca street, in front of the building, id with Nicolson pavement. At present e schools are much disturbed with the oise of that thoroughfare.

The house in the Second ward is in excel- nt condition, and is delightfully shaded ith trees on the south and west sides.

The Third ward building is large and in ir condition. Your Committee were pain- lly impressed with the crowded condi- on of the primary rooms. It seems to us at the health and progress of the pupils, less than the comfort of teachers, all de- and an immediate enlargement of the ouse, and we submit whether it would not wise for the Directors to secure the pri- ate property fronting on James street, nmediately adjoining the house, so that it ay be suitably enlarged.

Building 4, in ward No. 4 in our judg- ent is scarcely fit for school purposes. s structure and arrangement are bad. Its alls and ceilings are so dingy and un- ightly as to be disheartening to teachers nd demoralizing to pupils. It is due to oth that it be speedily made more cheer- ul and commodious. Also the present urniture is rather inferior in quality.

Building No. 5 in this ward, which stands pon a lot 100 feet by 290 feet, is new and legant, manifestly the finest school build- ng in the city. It contains a fine hall in s third story capable of seating six hundred persons, while all the arrangements eem well adapted to the purposes for which it has been erected.

The Sixth ward house stands on a beautiful site, and contains comfortable rooms. A part of the first story is occupied by the Janitor, from whence the unpleasant odors of cooking are distributed through the building. We suggest that this portion of he house be fitted up for school purposes, so that the First Primary, now taught in a room separated from the main building by a street, can be brought into it. The furniture is not first class, and we think the schools are rendered somewhat noisy by the movable chairs with which the building is seated.

There are also four schools taught, in connection with those in the Sixth ward house, in an old dilapidated house in the bounds of the Fifth ward. But as the Directors of this new ward are engaged in the erection of a first class house, we deem it imprudent to say more at present.

As already hinted we did not find time to visit the house in Snyder's Hollow. It is new, and in it two schools have been well conducted under the care of the Directors of the Sixth ward.

As the colored schools on Webster street are already under the supervision of a special committee of this Board, we did not regard it as important for us to visit them. The building, as you all know, is new and commodious, capable of accommodating all the colored children of the city.

During the past year there have been employed 7 Principles and 84 Teachers.

II. GOVERNMENT.

Good order seems to be maintained generally in the schools of the city. Perhaps the nearest approximation to perfection in this respect is to be found in House No. 2 and 5. Your committee were delighted with the order which seemed to prevail in almost every room in these buildings. And it is hoped that, without any resort to severe measures, perfect government will soon be established in every building. In order to do this it is important that changes in both Principals and Teachers—when competent—should be seldom made.

III. PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

There is not a ward in the city in which these schools are not too much crowded. This crowding is damaging to the health of the children and makes it quite impossible for the teacher to do her duty to them. We feel that this matter should claim the earnest attention of directors. It is all important that pupils have a fair opportunity of learning in the commencement of their education. They should have first-class teachers placed over them and be distributed in such numbers as will allow all to be faithfully attended to. In the Third ward the necessity for reorganization in the primary schools is most obvious, while in the First and Second wards there is also too much crowding. There are four primary rooms in the Third ward, each having two teachers. In one of these we found two hundred and forty pupils, and were told that a few days before our visit forty had been promoted. We believe there is not a first or second primary school in the city in which the enrolment is not considerably over a hundred. Is not this statement of things manifestly wrong, and should not something be done at once to remedy it if possible? If buildings cannot be enlarged might it not be well for directors to consider whether or not more rooms in the present houses should be occupied with primary schools and the propriety of employing two teachers in the same room in the grammar departments, rather than follow the present practice? This might give some relief, while it would more certainly insure a fair start to beginners. However this may be, we earnestly hope that this subject will receive your earnest consideration. Might not rooms be rented for the accommodation of primary schools?

IV.—RECITATIONS.

During our visit we gave our attention chiefly to two things; first, reading, and in general, we are constrained to say that the reading in our Public Schools is not excellent. We are persuaded that sufficient attention has not been bestowed upon this very important element of an education. We do not pretend to say where the fault is. Perhaps Directors are as much to blame as any other parties. In some instances we found that reading is not a daily exercise in the schools and we inferred that it was the pleasure of the directors to have it so. But however this may be, while we found a stray specimen of fair reading in all the schools, it is generally not good. Perhaps we ought to except two schools in the First ward and three in house No. 5 of the Fourth ward. In these the reading was very good. As we esteem good reading as no mean accomplishment, we would respectfully urge its importance upon Directors, Principals and Teachers.

With the exercises in Mental Arithmetic we were much gratified. Though in some instances the examples analyzed were difficult, yet the pupils were correct and prompt. Yet in a few schools we detected evidences of a lack of thoroughness in training, which we hope may soon be remedied. As this branch of study is most intimately connected with the mental growth and strength of pupils, contributing to their accuracy and quickness in calculation, we hope that there will not be the least diminution in the attention now bestowed upon it.

V. TEACHERS.

Your Committee feel that in moral character, mental culture, solid acquirements and earnest application to their work, the teachers of this city will compare favorably with any in other schools similar in grade. Of course there are a few in this profession, as in others, who are not first class. But while we were pained to notice in a very few cases, the manifest want of some elements requisite to a profitable teacher, yet with the teachers as whole we were most favorably impressed. And as they are engaged in one of the greatest and grandest works which it is the privilege of men and women to pursue—a work which may largely contribute to the well-being of public morality, and which certainly does help to make a nation wise and strong, we feel that they should receive every encouragement. Directors should see that they are liberally compensated and furnished with such text books in all branches of study as will best aid them in the mental and literary culture of the children. The visits paid by Directors are by far too unfrequent, while parents are seldom found in the schools, except to reveal their displeasure at some penalties that have been inflicted on their children. Visiting is of much use to both teachers and pupils, and each ward in the selection of Directors should look out men who have both capacity and leisure for the duties of such an important trust.

VI. GRADE.

The grade in our schools seems to be sufficiently high. The highest grade of study in the city is found in house 4, in Ward No. 4. Here we found the only school in which Ray's Algebra, second part, is taught. We are of the opinion that the schools in Wards 2 and 3 are not quite up to grade. However, no blame is to be attached to the Principal for this. It grows out of the crowded condition of the primary schools, compelling frequent promotions, and when the pupils are not properly prepared. It is impossible to keep up the grade, unless pupils are thoroughly qualified as they pass from shool to school.

VII. SUGGESTIONS.

I. While the present system of school management continues we suggest that no Principal be required to hear more than one class in the High School during the morning and afternoon sessions, that he may devote his attention to other parts of the schools.

II. We suggest that section 23, page 18, of the printed rules and regulations, be hereafter more rigidly enforced, and that if the committee on the same deem it advisable they shall prepare an additional rule forbidding the employment of pupils by the Professor in music in concerts, which are of no value to the schools, but rather tend to mental dissipation.

III. We suggest that the same committee be requested to consider the propriety of changing section 4, page 8, of the printed Rules and Regulations. It is hereby recommended that permits to the primary schools be only given during the first week of each month, and that permits to the A B C classes be given only during the first week of each quarter.

IV. We suggest that hereafter the vacations at the holidays and April, be each one week instead of two as heretofore.

V. We also suggest that declamation, which seems to be almost entirely neglected in our schools, shall be required once a week in all the Grammar and High schools.

VI. We suggest the appointment of another Committee on School Inspection, who shall be fully instructed by this Board as to all matters on which they shall report and who shall visit all the schools of the city twice a year and report as often in writing.

Respectfully submitted.
JOHN B. CLARK, Chairman.

THE "Revue Internationale" calls Gail Hamilton "a woman, making up for her lack of an impertinent pen; and, just that sort of character who, when married, gives the poor husband a foretaste of hell." Gail had inveighed against one of the special hobbies of the Revue. The same Revue thinks that the dissimilarity between Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and her later works is so great as to give rise to the suspicion that she did not write Uncle Tom at all, or was assisted in its composition by a vastly abler pen. Miss Cummings' Lamplighter and Mabel Vaughn, the same writer says, are dreadful trash, and Mrs. Holmes' novels are positively unbearable. "On the whole," he says, "the female novelists of America have shown very little ability; they either pander to the meanest sensationalism, or write in an eccentric, horribly affected style, trying to say smart things, and hiding lack of ideas under grotesqueness of diction."

WE, NOT LONG SINCE, announced that, in consequence of the success of the recent British explorations about Jerusalem, a similar enterprise for Mt. Sinai had been planned by the Rev. Pierce Butler. We regret to learn, by recent advices from England, that this gentleman, said to have been well qualified to superintend the labor, had died just as he was about sailing for his field of operations. The work will, however, it is said, be continued under other auspices, and it is hoped with interesting results.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ PHALON'S

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action o the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congeste state of that all important organ upon which depends the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine-glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

Assault and Battery.—Alfred Barnett made information yesterday against John Barnish, for assault and battery and surety of the peace. A warrant was issued by Alderman Thomas.

Pardoned.—J. H. Miller, Esq., convicted of libel in the Philadelphia Court, has received full pardon from Gov. Geary. We hope the Executive will pay due attention to the respectful request of the editorial fraternity of this city, and pardon Mr. B. T. Campbell, who is yet in durance vile.

End of a Suicide.—Jennie Miller, the young woman who attempted to commit suicide at the Union Depot on Monday last, died yesterday at the Union Depot Hotel. She began to sink on Wednesday evening and expired shortly after ten o'clock yesterday morning. The Coroner was notified and after impanneling a jury, adjourned the inquest until Saturday at two o'clock, p. m. The remains were taken in charge by the friends and removed to East Liberty in the afternoon. She was about twenty years of age.

Alleged Larceny.

Edward Smith, a stranger in the city, came to the Mayor's office yesterday and stated that he had been robbed of his pocket book, containing one hundred and ninety-three dollars, and of a watch and chain. He came to the city on Wednesday evening and put up for the night at No. 179 Liberty street, and when he awoke in the morning the property was missing. He does not know who took the money, but the police are working the case up.

Assaults and Batteries.

M. A. Pendegrast made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Barney O'Donnell with felonious assault and battery. He alleges that the accused struck him on the head with some heavy weapon. A warrant was issued.

Kate Johnston made information, at the same time and place, charging Mollie Olliver with assault and battery. The parties are "nymphs," and it appears had a difficulty on the street Wednesday night. Mollie was arrested, and when brought to the Mayor's office made information against Kate for surety of the peace and, also, against the parties who kept the house where they boarded charging them with maintaining a bawdy house. The cases were compromised and the parties discharged upon payment of costs.

Attempted Arson by a Little Girl.

Rachel Jones, a little girl about fourteen years of age, was brought into the watch house last night between ten and eleven o'clock, by Mrs. Nolan, residing on Seventh street, who states that during the evening the girl lit a bunch of matches and placed them in a drawer of the bureau, evidently designing to set the house on fire. Fortunately the smoke issuing from the drawer revealed the existence of the fire before any material damage was done. Mrs Nolan says this is the fourth time the girl has made an attempt of this kind, and she is at a loss for an explanation of such conduct. The girl says that a couple of men were on the roof of the house and they told her to do so, which is all the reason she can give for action. A hearing will be had in the case this morning.

Another Suicide.

One more victim was added to the list of suicides yesterday morning. John Seidle, a saloon keeper in McKeesport, who, it appears has been in bad health for some time past, put an end to his existence in this world by shooting himself in the head about one o'clock yesterday morning. Coroner Clawson was notified, but in consequence of other professional engagements was unable to attend to the case and Alderman Guyan M. Irwin, of Allegheny, held an inquest on the body. Several witnesses were examined, and from the testimony it was apparent that the deceased had been laboring under temporary mental aberration. The jury found that the deceased came to his death from the effects of a wound from a pistol shot inflicted by his own hands while laboring under temporary insanity.

Meeting of the Congressional Conferees of XXIIId District.

The Conferees of the 23d Congressional District met yesterday morning at ten o'clock, at Freeport, to place in nomination a Republican candidate to succeed Hon. Thomas Williams in Congress. There were present the following delegates:

Allegheny—Dr. T. F. Dale, Stephen H. Geyer, Hugh Fleming.

Armstrong—P. Templeton, G. R. Sloan, H. Kell.

Butler—James T. McJunkin, R. M. Doutler, C. E. Anderson.

The Convention organized by selecting James T. McJunkin, Esq., of Butler, Chairman, and H. S. Fleming, Esq., of Allegheny, Secretary.

Sixty-one ballots were taken without effecting any result, and the Convention then adjourned to meet on Monday next, when a choice will probably be made.

Another Sad Case of Drowning—A Little Boy the Victim.

Another sad case of drowning occurred between four and five o'clock yesterday evening, the victim being a little boy about thirteen years of age, named Theophilus Herman, son of Henry Herman, residing in the Fourth ward, Allegheny, and late a member of the Allegheny police. It appears that the boy, in company with a number of comrades, went to the Allegheny river to bathe, and procuring a skiff, rowed out to the second peir of the Mechanics street bridge from the Allegheny side. After playing in the water for a time they started back to the shore, when young Herman, who was the last one coming out of the water, endeavored to jump into the skiff, and in doing so missed his mark and fell into the river in deep water. Being unable to swim, he was drowned before assistance could reach him. The body has not been recovered.

Accidentally Drowned.

Louis Hoerr, aged seventeen years, was accidentally drowned about half-past twelve o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Monongahela river, at the foot of John street, East Birmingham. The unfortunate boy was employed at Phillips & Mittenswi's saw mill, and at noon went down to the river for some purpose. On passing over a raft he slipped upon a loose log, which turned with him, precipitating him into the water, which was about six feet deep. Several boys were standing a short distance off but were unable to render him any assistance.

The body was recovered very soon after the accident occurred, and every effort to recusitate it was made, but without success. The body was removed to the residence of the parents of the deceased, on Gregg street, Birmingham, where an inquest was held by Alderman G. M. Irwin. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

CITY COUNCILS.

Proposed Removal of the Postoffice—Preamble and Resolutions—Messenger's Salary Increased.

A special meeting of the City Councils was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, for the purpose of taking into consideration the proposed erection of a new Postoffice building.

Select Council.

Members present—Messrs. Brown, A. M., Coffin, Dickson, Gallaher, Gross, Jones, Laufman, Morrow, McClelland, McEwen, Rafferty, Shipton, Wainwright, White and President McAuley.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting, which he said had been called by the Presidents of Councils at the request of several members.

Mr. A. M. Brown stated that much against his will he had, at the urgent request of several gentlemen, prepared a preamble and resolutions relative to the removal of the Postoffice from its present location, which he desired to submit to Councils:

WHEREAS, We are informed that a proposition for the removal of the Postoffice from its present location, at the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, is pending in Congress; and,

WHEREAS, Many citizens, including members of the Select and Common Councils, of Pittsburgh, signed petitions setting forth the necessity of better accommodations and increased facilities for the transaction of the business of the office, without contemplating its removal; therefore,

Be it Resolved, by the City of Pittsburgh in Select and Common Councils assembled,

That the report of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department to the effect that the United States building occupied as a Postoffice, Custom House, Court Room, &c., is unsuitable and incapable of being remodeled, and should be sold and another site purchased in some other part of the city, is grossly erroneous and contrary to the facts.

Resolved, That the present location is central and best adapted to the wants and convenience of our entire population, and the proposed sale of the office is contrary to the wishes of the people generally.

Resolved, That we have certain information from reliable and distinguished architects that the present building is capable of being remodeled and well adapted for the post office, and we earnestly protest against any action contemplating a change of location, because,

First, Such a change is altogether unnecessary and would involve a useless expenditure of public money.

Second, The remodeling of the present building so as to remove all objections urged against it, can be readily accomplished at small expense to the Government.

Third, The present site is universally acceptable to our citizens. No improvement in that respect is possible, and any change of location would meet with very decided opposition.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions, signed by the Presidents and attested by the Clerks of Councils, be forwarded to our representative in Congress, the Hon. James K. Moorhead, with the request that the same be presented to the House and referred to the Committee on Postoffice and Postroads, or otherwise appropriately considered.

Mr. Shipton moved a second reading of the resolutions. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Gallaher moved a third reading and final passage.

Mr. Gross thought this very hasty action, and he was not prepared to vote on the question. He hoped it would lay over one month, and if pressed to a final passage he would call the yeas and nays.

Mr. McClelland thought that Councils should understand the matter and he would not vote for it. He would like to know where they proposed to locate the office if they removed it from its present location.

Mr. Laufman was opposed to taking any hasty action in the matter. He did not think that the city should attempt to confine public buildings to any locality for the benefit of private individuals who happen to be property owners in the locality.

Mr. Gallaher was in favor of passing the resolutions. He was informed that a certain Railroad Company was instrumental in having the office removed and that it was the intention to locate it in the vicinity of the Union Depot, which he thought would be very injudicious.

Mr. Shipton asked for the reading of the resolutions.

The Chair read the resolutions.

Mr. Morrow said that he would have to vote for the resolutions. He was opposed to having the postoffice torn down until they knew where it was to be located. It would be injudicious to place it near the Union Depot.

Mr. McAuley said he would have to vote for the resolutions, although he had signed the petition for a new postoffice. He had no idea that it was the intention to remove it from its present location. He thought it could be remodeled at a very small expense He was opposed to having the office removed to some out of the way place.

Mr. Jones said he was sorry that Councils were not all of one opinion on the matter. It was not a new thing. It had been sprung upon Councils some weeks since, and he had signed a petition, not to have the office removed to some other locality, but, as he understood, to have it remodeled. He thought that Councils should take action on the matter immediately. The present location was the most central one. If the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, as had been intimated, wanted to have the office removed to the locality of the depot, he thought they were meddling with the private affairs of the city, and he thought Councils should take a decided stand against such interference by the monopoly.

Mr. Brown said he had also signed the petition referred to, but it was with the understanding that it was to have the Postoffice remodeled and not removed. If Councils did not take a stand against the removal of the office, it would perhaps be too late at the next meeting.

The Chair announced that Mr. Kerr, architect, was present, and on motion he was requested to give his opinion relative to the matter.

Mr. Kerr took the floor and gave a statement, comparing the Postoffice building in this, with those of other cities, from which it appears that it is one of the largest postoffice buildings in the west. He stated the present building could be remodeled to answer all purposes, to afford ample room for the business of the postoffice

The resolutions were then adopted. C. C. non-concurred.

Mr. Gallaher submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That Congress be requested to appropriate the sum of $100,000 to rebuild, remodel or improve the present postoffice building in the city of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Gross moved to amend by striking out the words "sum of $100,000" and inserting "a sufficient sum." The amendment was adopted.

The resolution as amended was passed finally. C. C. non concurred.

Mr. White, from the Committee on Streets, presented an ordinance providing for the change of grade on Crawford street, from Clark to Reed street.

The ordinance passed to a third reading, and Mr. McEwen moved that it lay over until the next meeting. The motion to lay over was defeated.

The ordinance was then finally passed.

Mr. Morrow presented a petition, asking the repeal of an ordinance providing for the construction of a sewer on Miltenberger street, in the Eighth ward.

The petition was accepted and a resolution instructing the Street Committee to postpone the construction of the sewer for the present, was adopted.

Mr. A. M. Brown presented a petition from John Loughran, a creditor of the city to the amount of $444.50, for stone furnished John W. Young, the defaulting Road Commissioner of Peebles district, asking that provision be made for the payment of the bill. Referred to the Finance Committee in conjunction with the City Attorney.

Mr. White presented a petition from the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company, asking an appropriation of $1,000. Referred to Committee on Engines.

The chair read an ordinance relative to the rules of business. Laid on the table.

Mr. Morrow called up "an ordinance increasing the salary of the messenger to Councils," passed in Common Council on the 25th of May, 1868.

Several amendments were proposed and defeated, after which the ordinance passed finally under a suspension of the rules.

All other business not otherwise noticed was concurred in by Common Council.

Council then adjourned.

Common Council.

Council was called to order at half-past three o'clock. In the absence of the Clerk, Mr. Will M. Hartzell was, on motion of Mr. Rebman, chosen Clerk pro tem.

The following members answered on the call of the roll: Messrs. Ahlborn, Barnhill, Batchelor, Berger, Boggs, Brush, Caskey, Daub, Davis, Fitzimmons, Friday, Gerner, Hare, Herron, Hillerman, House, Jeremy, Kremer, Mawhinney, Moorhead, Palmer, Rebman, Robb, Rosewell, A. Scott, Sims, Torley, Verner, Welsh, and President Tomlinson.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

The President stated the object of the meeting was to take action concerning the proposed removal of the Postoffice.

Mr. Brush offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three from the Common and two from the Select Council be appointed, in accordance with section fourth of the "act supplementary to acts consolidating the City of Pittsburgh," approved April 1st, 1868, to examine returns of resident taxables, with a view of determining the ratio of representation, in accordance with said act.

Read three times and passed.

Messrs. Brush, Palmer and Verner appointed in C. C.; in S. C. Messrs. Laufman and Phillips were appointed.

Mr. Robb offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of one from each ward be appointed whose duty it shall be to see that the Assessor of his respective ward shall make a proper return of resident taxables to the President of Common Councils, as required by act of consolidation, on or before the 20th of July.

Read three times and passed.

Mr. Herron offered the following:

Resolved, That the Road Committee are hereby authorized to divide the first road district into two districts, appoint an additional commissioner, and divide the appropriation between said districts.

Mr. Herron moved the adoption of the resolution.

After some discussion, Mr. Rebman moved to refer to the Road Committee to report at next meeting. Carried.

Mr. Daub presented a remonstrance from property holders against the Grant street sewer, (from Sixth street to Strawberry alley.) Referred to Street Committee.

Also, a remonstrance against the widening of Aiken's Lane. Referred to Street Committee.

The Clerk of the Select Council appeared and presented the action of that body relative to the removal of the postoffice.

Mr. Kerr, architect, by request, read a comparison of the Pittsburgh Custom House with like buildings in other cities. He said he was the architect of the present building, and that it could be readily remodeled so as to give the desired additional space.

Mr. Hare moved to concur in the action of Common Council.

Mr. Robb opposed concurrence. He was unwilling to stultify himself, referring to a petition which he had signed for the removal of the post office and which had resulted in the proposition now before Congress. When it was proposed to remove the post office from Third street, there was protest made, and to satisfy all parties a Commission was appointed—Messrs Howe, Loomis and Roseburg—who reported in favor of the present location, and the change was made in accordance with the report. As the people were satisfied then, they could be satisfied again, in like manner. He objected most decidedly to concurring in the paper presented from Select Council.

A number of members stated they had signed the petition (circulated some weeks ago by Postmaster McClelland) for the removal of the Postoffice under a misapprehension. They did not understand the object to be to remove the Postoffice, but to remodel it, so as to make it conform to present necessities, which, there could be no question, it now did not.

Mr. A. Scott was surprised to hear members state they had signed the petition without knowing its nature. The Postmaster, at the time he presented it to Councils, made no concealment of the fact that the object was the removal of the Postoffice.

Mr. Brush said he had been differently informed. The Postmaster informed him it was not designed to have the Postoffice removed from Fifth street.

After further discussion, on motion of Mr. Moorhead, seconded by Mr. Batchelor, the action of Select Council was non-concurred in.

Mr. Batchelor offered a resolution that the Committee on City Property be and they are hereby empowered to build a police station house at East Liberty, at the earliest possible moment.

Adopted, after being amended so as to authorize the construction of stations in Oakland, Lawrenceville and the old Ninth ward. Not acted on in Select Council.

In all of which action, not otherwise noted, the Select Council concurred.

On motion adjourned.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.

Regular Meeting—Petitions and Remonstrances—Reports of Committees—Controllers' Report—The Common Grounds—Resolutions, &c.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of Allegheny Councils was held last evening.

Select Council.

Members present: Messrs. Black, Brown, Faulkner, Gang, Gwinner, Hall, Hartman, Jahn, Krebs, Motheral, Patterson, J. C., Patterson, A., Phillips, Riddle, Reiter, Smith, A. D., Weise and President McBrier. Members absent: Messrs. Callery, English, Myler, Reed, Smith, Wm., and Wettach.

On motion of Mr. Gang the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Mr. Krebs presented a petition asking for night police in the Eighth ward. Referred to Committee on Police.

Mr. Weise, a petition for grading Angle street, Seventh ward. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Riddle, a remonstrance against the paving of Union avenue. He asked that it be laid over until the ordinance providing for the same came up. So ordered.

Mr. Reiter, a petition from property owners on Belmont street asking for water pipe on said street. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Motheral presented an ordinance establishing the width of sidewalks on Juniata street at fifteen feet, from Sedgwick street to Beaver avenue. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr Hall, of the Finance Committee, presented the report of the Controller of the monthly expenditures for June, of which the following is a recapitulation:

No. 3. Engines	$ 1,118 94
No. 4. Printing	488 33
No. 5. Streets	1,603 14
No. 6. Wharves	160 64
No. 9. Contingent Fund	227 [illegible]
No. 11. Water Works	11,655 78
		$ 15,264 27
Paid Police for month of June		2,372 00
Paid Firemen		1,250 00
Paid City Officers		2,[illegible]
Paid for construction of Canal Sewer		11,989 61
Interest on City debt to July 1st		14,755 00
Previously paid		70,327 99
Total		$128,783 77

The report was accepted and the Controller authorized to certify warrants for the payment of the bills.

Mr. Hartman offered a resolution authorizing the Water Committee to inquire into the matter of laying water pipe on Balkman street. Adopted.

The Chair, in place, read a resolution authorizing the erection of a fire-plug at the corner of Federal and Lacock streets. Adopted.

Mr. Black offered a resolution requesting the contractor on Fayette street to proceed with the work or give up the contract. Referred to the Street Committee.

REPORT OF THE STREET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Riddle, from the Committee on Streets, presented the following report:

Gentlemen: Your Committee on Streets, to whom was referred the following communications, resolutions, &c., beg leave, after due consideration thereof, to make the following report:

Resolution relating to the grade of Hamlin street. We would offer the following resolution to reduce the grade:

Resolved, That the City Engineer be and is hereby instructed to establish the grade of Hamlin street so that it shall be two feet lower at the intersection of said street, with Fulton street, than represented on the profile af the grade of said street evenly. Adopted.

The object of the petition for drainage can be accomplished only by the construction of a sewer, and your Committee have therefore ordered that plans and specifications for a sewer be prepared. They will probably be completed by the next meeting of councils, when they will be submitted for your consideration.

We would report adversely to the remonstrance of property owners on Evans Alley to the collection of the assessment for grading the same, believing that Councils have no authority to exhonorate them.

We also report adversely to the petition to open Beaver street, as a large majority of the property owners are opposed to it.

Relative to the change of grade of South Canal street, we would submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the City Engineer be and he is hereby instructed to raise the grade of South Canal street, as already adopted, at the intersection of said street with Walnut street, eight inches.

Relative to the grading of Fairview street, we would submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the consent of the Councils of this city is hereby given to the vacation of the following described portion of said street, viz: twenty feet in width on its northern side, extending throughout its entire length.

We would submit an ordinance relative to the construction of the Montgomery avenue sewer; also, an ordinance authorizing the grading of Fountain street.

The report was accepted.

Mr. Black moved to amend the resolution relative to Hamlin street, as follows: Provided that the grading shall not affect any improved property east of Fulton street.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

An ordinance and remonstrance relative to the grading of Union avenue were referred back to the Committee.

The report and resolutions were then adopted.

The ordinance relating to the construction of the Montgomery avenue sewer was then taken up and adopted, A second and third reading was dispensed with and the ordinance passed finally.

Mr. English presented a petition from the Park Commission asking for the vacation of that portion of Sandusky street corssing North Commons. The petition was accompanied by the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Park Commissioners are hereby authorized to carry out the plan as adopted by Councils, by entering upon and making the improvements on that portion of North Commons now occupied by Sandusky street.

Resolved, That the City Solicitor take the necessary steps to have Sandusky street, between North avenue and Montgomery avenue, vacated, that is that portion of Sandusky street which crosses the North Common.

Mr. Brown moved that the matter be postponed until next meeting.

Mr. Motheral moved that the resolutions be laid on the table.

The motion was withdrawn, and on motion of Mr. Riddle the resolution relative to the vacation of Sandusky street was laid over until next meeting.

REPORT OF THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Mr. Brown, Chairman of the Water Committee, submitted the following report:

GENTLEMEN:—Your Committee on Water would respectfully report that they had under consideration the petition for water on Main street, Eighth ward. As much the larger number of the petitioners can be supplied by a pipe on Saw Mill alley, and at same time many others, they would recommend the laying of the pipe on said alley.

They also had under consideration the petition for a water pipe on Franklin street, from Market to Ohio street, and would recommend the laying of the pipe only from Market to Preble street.

They would report favorably to the petition for a pipe on Church avenue.

To carry out the foregoing recommendations they offer the following:

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the Water Works be and he is hereby authorized to lay a four inch water pipe on Saw Mill alley, Eighth ward, from the present terminus of the pipe to the old city line; a six inch pipe on Franklin street, from Market to Preble street, and a four inch pipe on Church avenue, from Sandusky street to Union avenue.

It is generally the case that plumbers put in service pipe between the water main and stop cock, which is too light, thus often bursting, destroying the street and otherwise occasioning much danger and inconvenience, and we would, therefore, offer the following resolution to provide for putting in stronger material.

Resolved, That after the 15th inst. all plumbers be and they are hereby required to put extra strong pipe from ferrule to stop-cock ditch, the same to be put in a depth of four feet, and that the Superintendent be instructed not to drive any ferrule until the terms of this resolution be complied with.

The report was received and the resolutions adopted.

Mr. Hall offered a resolution authorizing the Street Commissioner to have one hundred copies of the Act of Assembly relative to sewers printed for the use [of Councils. Adopted.

Mr. Riddle moved that Councils reconsider their action relative to the vacation of Sandusky street, in order that Mr. Park, President of the Park Commission, might be heard. This motion was adopted.

Mr. Park was introduced, and said that if the Commission were not allowed to proceed with the plan as adopted by Councils in accepting the report of the Commission, that it would disarrange the entire plan as contemplated by the Commission, and he hoped that Councils would give their consent to the improvement; that it was through his neglect that the matter had not been brought before Councils at an earlier day. He knew of but few persons who had any objection to the matter.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the matter was laid over.

Mr. A. D. Smith submitted a resolution authorizing the Water Committee to take into consideration the propriety of laying water pipe on Park street, and report to Councils. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Riddle offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Street Committee be and are hereby directed to have the obstructions on the streets along the line of the Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway removed, and the streets put in passable order, at the expense of said company. Adopted.

Mr. Riddle offered the following:

Resolved, That the Street Committee be requested to report to the next meeting of Councils, whether the track of the Pleasant Valley Railroad is laid in conformity with the grade of the streets it traverses. Adopted.

On motion adjourned.

Common Council.

Councils came to order at a quarter past eight o'clock, and in the absence of the President, on motion of Mr. Hanna, Mr. McNeil, of the Fourth ward, took the Chair.

At the call of the roll the following members were present:

Messrs. Comley, Clark, Dunham, Eyster, Groetzinger, Hanna, Hastings, Hochuly, Kennedy, Kunkle, Lindsay, Megraw, McNeil, Ober, Reed, Richardson, Seidle, Tate, Voeghtly, White, Warner.

On motion of Mr. Warner the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting was dispensed with.

Mr. Voeghtly presented a petition from residents of Ohio street, in the Third ward, for water pipe on said street from East Lane to Chestnut street. Referred to the Water Committee.

Mr. Reed, a petition from stand owners in the Market House, asking for the passage of an ordinance changing the day of holding market from Friday to Thursday. Referred to the Market Committee.

Mr. Lindsay, a petition from property owners on Page street, Fourth ward, for water pipe on said street. Referred to the Water Committee.

Mr. Clark offered a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to have Chartiers street repaired from Rebecca street to the Ohio river. Adopted.

Mr. Megraw, a remonstrance from property holders on South Canal street against the proposed raising of the grade on said street between East Lane and Cherry street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Hanna, a resolution directing the Sewerage Committee to inquire into and report on the propriety of constructing a sewer on Federal street, from City Hall to the Canal sewer, for the drainage of the City Hall water closets and the advantage of property on said street. In S. C. amended by striking out "Canal sewer" and inserting the words "any sewer practicable."

REPORT OF THE MARKET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Hanna, Chairman of the Market Committee, presented the following report:

Your Committee on Markets beg leave to submit the following statement of the receipts of the Clerk of the Markets and Weighmaster at the Diamond Salos for the month of June, and of the Weighmaster of the Second ward Scales for the month of May and June, as follows:

Duncan Dallas, Clerk of Markets	$1,046.65
Geo. P. McNulty, Diamond Scales	246.37
J. B. McAllister, Second ward Scales, May	199.37
J. B. McAllister, Second ward Scales, June	277.91
Total	$1,770.49

Mr. Megraw moved that the report be accepted and filed. Carried.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ENGINES.

Mr. Megraw, from Committee on Engines, presented the following report:

Your Committee on Engines, to whom was referred the resolution relative to procuring fire apparatus for the Sixth ward, would respectfully report: That a hose carriage has been in process of construction for some time past and will soon be completed, and we would respectfully offer the following resolution to purchase a horse, harness and hose carriage for the Fire Company in said ward, so that upon the entire completion of the carriage they can go into active service:

Resolved, That the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department be and he is hereby authorized to purchase a horse, a set of suitable harness and five hundred feet of three-ply combination hose for the use of the Good Will Hose Company ef the Sixth ward.

It has come to the knowledge of your Committee that certain of the fire companies of the city have, on several occasions recently, demanded money of citizens whose property was endangered by fire, and we therefore offer and ask the adoption of the following resolution to prevent such demands in the future:

Resolved, That the Chief Engineer be and is hereby authorized to disband any fire company of this city whenever he shall ascertain that such company has demanded money from any citizen for services rendered at fire.

At the late fire in the Second ward the fire department acted nobly. No fire could have been more skillfully managed or could firemen do more than our's toward its suppression. Threatening at one time to be terribly destructive, it was suppressed without any considerable loss. And we therefore take this opportunity to commend them, Chief Engineer and officers and men of the various companies, for their conduct on that occasion.

Having had referred to us a resolution to report upon the propriety of extending the Fire Alarm Telegraph to the Seventh ward, along Spring Garden Avenue and report the cost of the same, we would recommend the erection of the Telegraph not only in this ward, but also in the Eighth ward, where it is likewise needed. The length of the line on Spring Garden Avenue is about —— feet, and in the Eighth ward, via Main and Pine streets and Bank Lane is about —— feet, the whole costing about $1,651. In order to carry out the foregoing recommendations, we would offer the following:

Resolved, That the Controller be and he is hereby authorized to advertise and receive proposals for the extension of the Fire Alarm Telegraph into the Seventh ward, a distance of —— feet via of Spring Garden Avenue and for the extension of said telegraph into the Eighth ward a distance of ——feet via Main and Pine streets and Bank Lane.

The report was received and on motion the resolutions were taken up separately.

On motion of Mr. Tate, the resolution relative to the purchase of a house, &c., &c., for the Good Will Company was adopted.

The resolution to prevent the demanding of money by firemen for services rendered was next taken up, and after considerable discussion, Mr. Tate moved to lay the resolution on the table. Motion carried.

The third resolution was taken up, and on motion of Mr. Megraw, it was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WHARVES AND LANDINGS.

Mr. White, from the Committee on Wharves and Landings, presented the following:

Your Committee on Wharves and Landings would respectfully report that they duly considered the resolution referred to them relating to the wharf, so as to extend the authority of the wharfmaster of the western section of the wharf over a greater length thereof, and they submit an ordinance providing for said division.

On motion the report was accepted, the rules suspended and the ordinance read three times and finally passed. In Select Council the ordinance was laid over.

Mr. Hastings, a protest against the closing of Sandusky street, from Montgomery to North avenue by the Park improvement. Referred to Committee on Common Grounds.

Mr. Tate moved that Council adjourn under the rules, which was agreed to.

As the hour had not arrived, action on Select Council business was proceeded with.

The resolution accompanying the report of the Committee on the Poor Farm, which was adopted by C. C. at a former meeting, was referred back to the Committee.

C. C. adhered to its former action and asked for a Committee on Conference.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Tate, Comley and Warner, said Committee.

Ten o'clock having arrived, in accordance with Mr. Tate's motion, Council adjourned.

In all business not otherwise noted C. C. concurred.

War Among the Milliners.—Mary Howard made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against Mrs. L. McClelland, proprietress of a milinery establishment at 190 Penn street, and two of her employes, Agnes Boyd and Sarah Richardson, for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued.

An Old Fashioned House-warming.

Dr. E. S. Aborn, whose name must be as familiar as a household word to all of our readers, yesterday took possession of his beautiful and enticing summer resort, which is imparadised in one of the most bewitching sites in the romantic neighborhood of Homewood. The house-warming was observed in old fashioned style, the Doctor bringing with him into our staid locality, the refined and hospitable ideas which are so characteristic of the Southern cities and the metropoli of fashionable Europe. There were invited and present a large number of guests, numbering our first citizens and representatives of the different professions. Indeed, we have never seen assembled a gathering more conspicuous for learning and gentle breeding, rivaling the select assemblages which the literary clubs of more assuming cities occasionally entice to enjoyment and pleasure from the cares of a busy world. The guests amused themselves in walking through the charming lawns, the shaded paths and romantic surroundings about the superb residence recently erected by the Doctor to stand as a monument to his good taste, and which which will compare favorably with any of the princely residences about our city. An elegant dinner was spread, and between mirth and music the party had splendid enjoyment, and were fully convinced that the successful physician was likewise up in the art of hospitality.

Dr. Aborn has concluded to make this his final home and resting place. He has domesticated here and will not suffer the brilliant and tempting offers of other localities to withdraw his services from Pittsburgh, in ministering to the wants of afflicted and diseased humanity. He is worthy of his success and may he live long to enjoy it.

Festival.

The Fourth U. P. Festival, now being held at the Fifth ward School House, is drawing largely, and everybody is much pleased with the enjoyment afforded. The contest for the first class Estey Organ from the well known establishment of Barr, Knake & Buettler, No. 12 St. Clair street, is being spiritedly carried on by the friends of the various Sunday School Superintendents, to the most popular of whom it is to be awarded. The principal competitors are Messrs. Hamilton, of Wesley Chapel, Rabe, of the Tenth ward Mission, and Arbuthnot, of the Fourth U. P. Sabbath School. To-night the Festival will close.

Rare Birds.—There are on exhibition and for sale at No. 17 Diamond street, the finest collection of Birds ever brought to this city, embracing among others Mocking Birds, Red Birds, Blue Linnets, Nonpareils, &c. The plumage of some of these is of surpassing beauty, the colors brilliant and lustrous. The attention of bird fanciers is invited to this fine collection, which will remain but for a few days.

"Spring is cheery,
Winter is dreary,
Green leaves hang, but the brown must fly;
When he is shaken,
Lone and forsaken,
What can an old man do but die?"

Why, take Plantation Bitters, to be sure, and with them a new lease of life. The old are made young again, the middle-aged rejoice, and the young become doubly brilliant by using this splendid Tonic. Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Side, "Crick in the Back," and all symptoms of Stomachic Derangement yield at once to the health-giving influence of Plantation Bitters. They add strength to the system and bouyancy to the mind.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne, and at half the price. MWF&F
